PREFACE.

THE present volume contains the cases brought before the Committee for Compounding from its commencement in 1643 to 1646;—that is, the cases commencing within those dates inclusive; but as each case is carried out from its beginning to its close, and as some dragged on through a weary length of years, the papers in the volume have a wide range of dates, some extending down even to 1660, when so many of the Royalist party suffered for their share in Sir George Booth's premature and ill-fated insurrection.

A few explanations should be given as to the plan adopted in constructing the Calendar. Had all the papers relating to the cases been chronicled, the three volumes in which they will be included would have been multiplied by four or five. It must therefore be understood that this Calendar is by no means exhaustive of the information contained in the papers on the respective cases. But the references on the left-hand margin are intended to be exhaustive of indications as to sources of information. All petitions and orders on the cases, with other papers needful for its history, are calendared; the certificates, particulars of estates, depositions, letters, reports, &c., are not calendared, but are indicated.

The certificates noted C. are of the compounder's having taken the Negative Oath and National Covenant, and of any circumstance supposed to tell in his favour as to the amount of fine to be imposed. Also in some cases official certificates are given of the proceedings.

The particulars of estates, P.E., are an important series of papers, forming practically a rent-roll of most of the great landed estates in England, because the majority of landed proprietors embraced the King's cause. They are always signed by the compounder, who thereby made himself responsible for their accuracy. If there was undervaluation or concealment of any part of the estate, only so much of it was freed from sequestration as was given in the "particular;" the word is always used in the singular.

These particulars have been found extremely useful in the identification of men of the same name, because in the returns of delinquents in the general proceedings, as calendared in Part I., the same man is returned as in several counties, if he happened to have estates in several. As an illustration there were several men of the name of John Denham :—

- 1 John Denham of Somerset, p. 1289 of this vol.
- 2 „ „ Essex, who compounded 13 Dec. 1647.
- 3 „ „ Durham, who compounded 29 April 1652.
- 4 „ „ Westminster, named p. 92.

Now the Essex man had also estates in cos. Bucks, Surrey, and Suffolk, all of which were sequestered, and he is therefore returned in the lists of all those counties on pp. 68, 95, 96, 389, but the particular of his estates renders it practicable to identify him.

The depositions, D., sometimes relate to examinations as to delinquency, and are occasionally of historical value as to the details of the civil war. Sometimes they relate to claims made upon estates compounded for.

The letters are chiefly from the county committees, in response to orders given to them to certify on points relating to a case. These are marked L.C.C., and upon them the subsequent order was usually founded. There are also other miscellaneous letters marked L.

The Reports, R., are also an important class of documents. In the shorter cases, they contain a brief resumé of the delinquency, date of petition, amount of estate, and note of the fine. But in the numerous cases of claimants on estates compounded for, they frequently give analyses of deeds, wills, &c., upon which the claim is based, which are important in elucidation of pedigree and family history.

In the shorter cases, i.e., those where the case is one of composition only, the proceedings are simple. The petition is sent in, accompanied by a particular of the estate, and certificates of the petitioner's having taken the National Covenant and Negative Oath; on these the report is drawn up, and upon that the fine imposed, according to rules given on p. vii. of the preface to the preceding Calendar of general compositions. Clergymen and lawyers were fined at higher rates than others, on the ground that they ought to be better informed as to the rights of the civil contest; and if they compounded concealing their profession, they had their fines raised on its being detected.

The cases of all claimants on any estate are placed after the case of the delinquent, and are followed by those of lessees of the estate, or purchasers of the estate when it was sequestered, and in one of the Acts for Sale of lands forfeited for treason. [See Preface to General Calendar, pp. xii. and xix.]

Some explanation should be offered as to the plan of orthography adopted for names of persons and places. In the case of persons, the spelling given is usually that of the signature of the individual; but cases occur in which he signs in different ways; others in which the heading of a petition has one spelling and the signature a different one, and not unfrequently the papers on a case will present six, or eight, or more different spellings, as—

Aischough	Aiscue	Askough
Aiscough	Ascough	Ayscough
Aiscoughe	Askew	Ayscue

Again, the name of Monk is spelled—

Monck	Monk	Muncke
Moncke	Munck	Munk

Sometimes the variants are very considerable, as—

Tallakerne	Tolkins	Toulkin
Toalkins	Tollakerne	Toulkins
Tolkin	Tollakine

In cases where the variant is considerable, and not likely to occur to a searcher, a cross reference is given; but in simpler cases where the variant is between i and y, the addition of a final e, the doubling of a letter, &c., there is not a cross reference, as the insertion of all variants would have multiplied the names in the index at least fourfold.

In reference to places, great pains have been taken to identify them with places known to exist. Every name presenting uncertainty has been compared with Adams' Index Villaris, compiled in 1680, and with the index to the latest Census return. The spelling adopted has been that of these authorities, and in case they differ, the spelling which comes nearest to the original, and cross references have been used sparingly.

The following is an instance of the variants in spelling:—

Accornbanck	Ackronbancke	Akornbankes
Accornbancke	Ackronbanke	Alkorne Bancke
Accornebanke

Some names, especially those of Welsh places, defy identification, and minute local knowledge of every part of England and Wales would be necessary to secure accuracy as to all the names of manors, &c.

The present volume contains a full third of the composition cases; the next volume will bring them down to 1650; and the following volume to the end. The index,—which will be divided into names of persons and places, and will comprise the whole of the composition proceedings,—will be published immediately after the completion of the Calendar, as it progresses synchronically with the printing of the sheets.

Lancaster, lately fallen to him by deeds of 12 Charles, on the death of his grandfather, Rob. Molineux, sequestered for recusancy only, and of his father, Rob. Molineux, who was a delinquent though never sequestered. Appealed to the Barons of Exchequer, but his case has not yet been heard. Noted as referred to Reading.	105	769

	in the assembly at Oxford, which is his only delinquency.

	2,000 l. for a marriage portion. Having no means of subsistence, begg allowance thereof, or a favourable report to Parliament.

	16 May. Willis discharged, having paid his whole fine with	8	49 interest, 25 l. 6 s. 8 d. 23 Feb. 1654. Petitions the Protector. Has been 8 months in	228	12 prison, having nothing to satisfy his creditors, all the profits of his office having been detained from him for 10 years by John Bolles, whom he left as his deputy during his absence.
	Bolles was sworn to execute the said office only during petitioner's absence, and has no grant or patent thereof. Having rendered himself voluntarily 8 years ago, not upon articles, and paid the greater part of his debts, begs that the remainder may be satisfied out of the fees of his office yet remaining unpaid in the Hanaper in Chancery, and that by favour of the Protector, he may be restored to his office; otherwise he and his son, who are patentees thereof for life, must perish for want of bread.
	Begg that Bolles may account for the fees by him received.
	With note that Bolles is to have a copy of the petition, and answer it in 8 days.
	[11] March. Bolles answers that when there were two Great Seals	228	13 at once on foot 10 years ago, Willis, by pretence of his patent from the late King, attended the Great Seal at Oxford. Respondent was freely elected, and sworn by authority of both Houses absolute Clerk of the Crown in Chancery in his own right, and not on deputation during absence. At that time none other experienced therein durst adventure to undertake it. Has faithfully served the Commonwealth, and Willis has no more cause of complaint than any other person ousted of his office for delinquency, but has forfeited the patent by his non-use and deserting of his office, in contempt of several orders of the House of Peers summoning him. Willis' assertion that respondent was sworn to execute the office only during his absence is defamatory, and strikes at the wisdom and honour of both Houses. Begg to be dismissed from this unjust and scandalous complaint. Having in the late storm and national unsettlement endured the brunt, hazard, and loss, and had much charge in managing the office, hopes to attain to a calm fruition thereof in the halcyon days under his Highness. Referred, with Willis' petition, to Col. [George] Mackworth and [Walter] Strickland, to report.

	unless the grant to Bolles prove an obstacle at law.
7 Feb. 1644.	SIR EDW. DERING, Bart.

	what proportion they please, trusting to them to preserve him from ruin. His wife and children have received nothing since his sequestration.
	7 Feb. 1644. Order that a committee, a list of whose names follows, tender him the Covenant, that he may have the benefit of the Declaration. Noted that he appeared and took the Covenant.	223	639
	2 April. Allowed $\frac{2}{3}$ of his estate, on security to pay $\frac{1}{3}$ to the use of Parliament till further order.	90	157
	27 July. Being referred by the House to the Committee for Compounding, Ash reports their resolution that, as he was in actual war against Parliament, his fine should be 1,000 l. , he having an estate of 800 l. a year.	2	5
L.C.C. 223 751 NOTE 223 642	20 August. Recommended to the House to be remitted, and the estate discharged.	2	14
16 Feb. 1644.	MILDMAY, EARL OF WESTMORELAND.
P.E. 223 853 857 858	Petitions the House of Lords. Refers himself to their wisdom and goodness. Grieves that by deserting the Parliament he has appeared an opposer of their proceedings. God has discovered to him the danger Church and State were in, and his judgment is fully convinced that he was formerly seduced. Is now resolved to sacrifice life and fortunes to the real service of King and Parliament, for which he was born. To this end begs to take the Covenant, and be restored to his liberty, and to such part of his fortune as to their wisdom seems fit.	223	852
	16 Feb. 1644. Referred to the committee for tendering the Covenant.	223	640
	23 March. They report that he ought to be within the benefit of the Declaration of both kingdoms, because he has expressed his good affection by staying in town upon his honour, by taking the Covenant, by paying 2,000 l. since he was brought up upon his 20th part, and by voluntarily paying all other assessments; and that as he has dealt freely, they should deal freely and nobly with him. As he has suffered much by soldiers, has many children, and was one of the first lords that took the Covenant, they recommend that he should enjoy three-quarters of his estates, and pay the remainder to the Parliament's use during pleasure of both Houses.	90	163 165
NOTE 223 860	24 June. Case referred by Parliament to the Committee at Goldsmiths' Hall.	223	855
	26 July. Ash reports that that Committee have resolved,—he appearing to have been in actual war against Parliament, and to have an estate of 6,000 l. a year charged with debts and jointures,—that his fine be 2,000 l.	2	5
	30 July. Order by the House of Commons to the Committee at Goldsmiths' Hall to call him before them, and agree with him according to the votes of the House. Summoned accordingly, and fine set at 1,000 l.	2	8
	30 August. On his offer to pay 500 l. , presenting security for payment of 500 l. more at Michaelmas, the committee accept the same, and will report it to the House of Commons, that an Ordinance may pass for his discharge.	2	19
19 Feb. 1644.	DAVID SKIPWITH and JOHN RUDSTON, Utterby, Co. Lincoln.
	Both petition [Ferdinando] Lord Fairfax, General of the Northern forces, and Governor of Hull, that having read and considered the Parliament's gracious tender of the Covenant to all coming in before the 1st March, they may be admitted to take it.	186	18
P.E. 186 15 L. 186 21	19 Feb. 1644. He answers that the prisoners, being prisoners of war, ought to be redeemed; when they are free men, they shall be admitted.	186	17

- 6 March 1644. SIR ANT. ASHLEY COOPER, Bart., Wimborne St. Giles, Dorset. Vol. No.
A or p.
- Information before the Committee for taking the Covenant that he was sheriff of Dorchester this year, and late Governor of Weymouth, but delivered up his commission in the first week in January. That he came into Parliament's quarters at Hurst Castle, Hants, 24 February, and brought certificate thereof; that he came in because fully satisfied that there was no intention of that side for the promoting or preserving the Protestant religion and the liberties of the kingdom. He left well stocked property, worth 800*l.* a year. He had not made known his intention to any. Those that should come in before 6 March were promised their lives and liberty, their estates to be disposed of to the use of the public; only if they took the Covenant, and behaved themselves so as to deserve well of Parliament, they were to be allowed 40*l.* or 50*l.* a year. 76 561
- A month before he heard of the Declaration, he delivered up his commissions, and was resolved to return to Parliament without any conditions. Has seen the Covenant and desires to take it. One of the County Committee affirms that he is very cordial for Parliament, and able to do good service by discovery of the enemy's designs and strength, and how to prepare against them, both at Poole and Wareham.
- 16 Aug. 1644. Fine 500*l.* - - - - - 2 12
- 15 March 1644. JOHN, EARL OF THANET, Tufton, Sussex.
- Petitions the House of Lords to be received into their good opinion, discharged from sequestration, and heard in his defence, and begs that meantime stay may be made of his rents, and the felling of his timber. Before any order of restraint on Peers or others from repairing to the King, was summoned by the King's letters to York. Returning thence very infirm, by leave of the King and of the House of Lords, went beyond seas about May 1644. Recovered his health, and without constraint returned, but found himself conceived a delinquent, and his timber, carefully preserved by his ancestors, was wastefully spoiled. Submits to the judgment of the Lords. Noted, "Earl of Thanet's petition sent from the Lords, 15 March 1644." 223 876
- 23 March 1644. Further details of his case referred to the committee appointed to consider of those that come in to take the Covenant. 90 162
- L.C.C. 223 877 23 March. Pleads before them that in November 1642, he refused 223 879
881 to execute the Commission of Array. Had a command from [Col. Edw.] Ford, high sheriff [of Sussex]. In December 1643, on Col. Morley requiring 2,000*l.* from him on pain of sequestration, tried to go to Lady Beauchamp, his aunt, but was prevented by troops on both sides. His losses are 6,000 ounces of plate; horses and sheep, worth 2,000*l.*; house which cost 32,000*l.*; woods and timber, 20,000*l.*; parks and deer destroyed, and household stuff taken from his three houses at Windsor, Heathfield, and London.
- 26 March. Order that stay be made of felling his timber, unless it be by special order of Parliament for use of the Navy, and that the County Committee certify the grounds of sequestration, the case being referred by the House of Commons, 24 June 1644, to the Committee at Goldsmiths' Hall. 90 162

- 3 June. Note of fine 4,000*l.* - - - - - 223 885
- 26 July. Ash reports the resolution of that Committee that, as he has often been in actual war against Parliament, and has sent plate and money to the King, and has a real estate of 10,000*l.* a year, he should pay a fine of 20,000*l.* 2 5, 6

- March 1644. Petitions the Committee for taking the Covenant. 73 171
 Attended the King, being his sworn servant. Never served in the army. Came in on the Declaration of both kingdoms. His only maintenance was an annuity of 200*l.*, which, by reason of the great charges on his father's estates, has been unpaid during the last year. Since his coming in, his father is dead, and an estate of 700*l.* a year, charged with 4,000*l.* debts, has descended to him. His father paid his full fifth and twentieth. His sequestration ruins himself, wife, and children, and hinders his payment of his father's debts. Begg allowance of the part of the estate charged with the said debts, and of a proportion of his 200*l.* a year, being himself greatly in debt.
- 27 July. Ash reports that the Committee for Compounding propose a fine for 2,000*l.*, Sir Francis appearing to have been in service against Parliament, and to have 1,000*l.* a year at least. 2 5

When his case was reported in 1646, after long debate, the House laid it aside, and he has ever since attended their resolutions. 220 204

NOTE 11 53	16 July 1650. The London Sequestration Committee to say how the estate was discharged from sequestration, and the executrixes to show cause why the fine of 5,000 l. should not be paid.	11 88 110	25 252 535 739

	6 September. The executrixes to show cause why the estate should not be sequestered for non-payment of the fine.	11	146
c. 110 720	5 and 20 September. The executrixes plead that Gurney, whilst in prison, was sequestered for non-payment of his $\frac{1}{5}$ and $\frac{1}{20}$. That he was fined 5,000 l. by the Committee for Compounding, and the fine confirmed by Parliament, for discharge of sequestration, delinquency, and imprisonment. That in Nov. 1646, he compounded and paid 1,000 l. for his $\frac{1}{20}$ and was then freed from sequestration, but no proceeding was taken then or since for payment of the 5,000 l. ; that he died three years ago, unsequestered for delinquency, and that his estate, he being much in debt, was disposed of; the question is whether the fine, set six years ago, can now be claimed.	11 88	185 535
	September? Further plea that the offence was in 1642, before any ordinance of sequestration; that he has been impeached and judicially punished by Parliament, which had 7,500 l. of his estate, besides Gurney House and his house in Wiltshire, which was made a garrison; and that he suffered five years' imprisonment, dying in prison, and the loss of credit and trade, and therefore should not be again punished. That his estate was so much encumbered that lands have been sold to pay off 26,000 l. debt, and 2,000 l. has been paid by the executrixes from their own estates, and still they have not wherewith to pay the debts.	110	709

CLAIMANTS ON THE ESTATE.

P.R. 99 695	28 Aug. 1650. ARTHUR LEVITT, of Petworth, Sussex, petitions that John Apsley in 1633 mortgaged to him for 300 l. lands in Pulborough Park, &c., value 24 l. a year, which lapsed to him in 1636 for non-payment. As Apsley is a delinquent, and has not compounded, beks to compound for the same on the Act of 1 Aug. 1650, and meantime not to be interrupted in possession.	99	695
	22 March 1654. Levitt complains that the county commissioners threaten to distrain him for his receipts from the estate, being what is justly due to him, and beks an order for forbearance, Apsley having only had abatement in his composition for what is justly due to petitioner.	99	681
	22 March. The mortgagee discharged from payment of arrears, the Committee for Compounding being satisfied as to his right to what he has received.	25	318

		June 1649? Petition to Thomas, Lord Fairfax, that his estate is so manacled by strict entail that he cannot raise money to pay his composition, yet he is fined at two years' value, the highest of any in the Oxford Articles. The Commissioners, on sight of the Lord President's opinion annexed, referred his case to the House, and they have sent it back to Goldsmiths' Hall. Those Commissioners are not satisfied about the 11th Article of Oxford. Requests his sense whether the articles should not be made good to petitioner.	206	38
		18 June. Opinion of John Bradshaw and letter of Lord Fairfax, that he ought to be allowed to compound on Oxford Articles.	206	41 43

		24 October. Order for payment of the said annuities - -	10	193
		December. Mary and Eliz. Neville complain that on the placing of new County Commissioners in Norfolk and Suffolk, their annuities were ordered to be paid from Suffolk lands only. Beg to be paid as before from the 2 counties, according to Lord Abergavenny's deed, of which a copy is preserved, they having no other means of subsistence but the charity of friends.	61	67
		1 Oct. 1651. Lord Abergavenny petitions that he assigned his estates in Norfolk and Suffolk to his sisters, Mary and Elizabeth, for payment of their annuities of 120 l. The committee have appointed a steward to keep courts on the estates, pay the said annuities, and account for the remainder, without direction to pay petitioner his thirds. Thus his records will fall into unknown hands, and his estate be injured. Begs leave to appoint his own steward, who shall be accountable to them, 10 Sept. 1651.	61	55
		1 October. Order that stewards of his lordship and the Commonwealth are to keep joint courts, but his steward is to be approved by the Committee for Compounding.	15	34

		22 September. Petition of Lord Abergavenny. Compounded in 1648 for his estates in Norfolk and Suffolk, which were charged with annuities to his sisters. The commissioners for the counties were ordered to see them paid, whereon those of Norfolk sent their agents to collect moneys, hold courts, &c., and made him an absolute stranger to his estate, not allowing his thirds. Begs redress.	61	53

THOMAS AUDLEY, and MOLINEUX AUDLEY, his Brother, St. Ives, Hunts.

The inhabitants of St. Ives, Hunts, petition the House of Commons. On their former petition, Parliament placed amongst them Job Tookey, a godly and orthodox minister, whose father, after many years' faithful ministry there, was, 4 years before the sitting of Parliament, unjustly silenced by the then Bishop of Lincoln, and an unworthy scandalous man substituted, whom Parliament ejected. St. Ives is very large, the means very inconsiderable, not 52 l. a year, the poor very many, and apt to expect much, for want whereof, as in most places, they are apt to be prejudiced against the gospel. Without help their minister must either decline the work of the ministry, or miscarry	186	388

His employments, though not excusable, "may be much extenuated by considering his behaviour therein, which hath only relished of a gentleman and a soldier." He and his family have suffered at Oxford, some by imprisonment, others under the cloud of disgraces and disfavour, for declaring themselves enemies to all that were enemies to peace; and not prevailing sufficiently in the discovery of such persons, have all left their employments, submitting rather to the hazard of want than to continue in plenty with an unsafe conscience.

Touching the particulars of his estate, which (if he had any) would now be under sequestration and forfeiture, he has very little to say, as he has always been rather put to it to conceal his wants than his fortune from the world. Is chiefly afflicted that, since his present estate can give no recompense for misdemeanors, his person should be likewise rendered incapable of trust or doing service to the State. Hopes to be made a timely example of the Parliament's mercy, that all who now intend coming in may quit their apprehensions of the Parliament's severity, which to his knowledge makes many continue enemies against their will.

Concerning the Covenant, he will shortly send in a certificate, having deferred taking it till he knew whether Parliament would confer the honour of a trust in any of their armies upon him, understanding it to be the order that all honoured with such employment should take it before they go out into the field.

S. 2 400	May 1645. Sir Wm. Kingsmill begs relief, having never deserted Parliament, but always held correspondence with the chiefest gentlemen of Hants. CASE 2 40 a b

9 April 1645.

Vol. No.
A or p.

Obedyed the Parliament's general commands, executing nothing for the King except under menace of ruin. Offered his service voluntarily to the Hampshire Committee, and advanced largely in proportion to his estate, which is but 300*l.* a year. Notwithstanding all this, he was maliciously prosecuted by a high delinquent, whose brother-in-law, on former malice, promoted the information, and cited him before the Committee of Examinations. Gave them such clear satisfaction that he had a discharge on taking the Covenant, it appearing he had been plundered of 1,000*l.* by commission from the Earl of Essex, without enquiry for being sheriff, "which he (the earl) hath since confest with much passionat dislike."

Has been thrice plundered since, by express order from the King, by whom he has been now 12 months sequestered. Lost 400*l.* in horses and cattle by Lord Manchester and Sir Wm. Waller, when lying at Newbury. His house being between the two parties, in the middle of the Western road, has been obliged to entertain all comers.

	May 1645. Sir Richard being referred by Parliament to the Committee at Goldsmiths' Hall to compound, they report that they cannot receive certain information of any disaffection on his part, nor of any valuable estate belonging to him, and they forbear to propose any fine, leaving it to the consideration of the House.	173	123
D. 167 517 -523	9 May. Proposal by the Committee for Compounding that Sir William be discharged, on giving bond to pay 500 l. within six months after he is settled in his estate in Hants, claimed by his mother for life; he is reported to be well-affected, but foreed to undertake some action for the King. His personal estate, between both armies, is ruined, and his land was sequestered by the King.	2 221	72 767

	12 Feb. 1651. Petition renewed, recapitulating the former, since which he has been put into the commission of the peace for the county, and has always acted with the County Committee. Hopes he shall not suffer by reason of the omission of the former Committee for Compounding to report his fine to the House, and begs full discharge without further fine.	221	771

Beg the benefit of their discovery, having expended much money in the prosecution, and waited five years. Note that they cannot be relieved, as Kingsmill was discovered before.

May 1645.		SIR THOS. LIDDELL, Bart., Ravensworth Castle, Co. Durham, late Alderman of Newcastle-on-Tyne, Northumberland.
Information that he and others in 1637 got a patent of the sole vending of coal at Newcastle, and raised the price 1s. a chaldron. That in 1642, he and others tried to oust Algernon, Earl of Northumberland, appointed by Parliament governor of the town. That they joined the Earl of Newcastle, and Liddell being mayor, gave him the keys of the town, with the magazine of arms.				178	67
That they presented to the King at Nottingham 2,000 l. , and a petition thanking him for his message of August 25, begging constant pay for the army quartered there, and hoping the preservation of his throne and prerogative. That they levied 1,000 l. to pay the soldiers, accepted Commissions of Array, and levied war against Parliament.					68
That Liddell was captain of a company of trained bands, and that they bound themselves by oaths to defend the King and to keep the town for him. That they pronounced the Earl of Essex and the Parliament rebels and traitors, sank the ships sent to reduce the Earl of Newcastle, exposed the town to storm and plunder by refusing good terms of surrender, and so continued in opposition till Liddell was apprehended as a traitor, 19 Oct. 1644.

A great part of his estate was, long before the wars, granted as jointure to his mother, who is now living; a part is heavily charged for providing portions for her younger children, and the small residue is sequestered, to the utter ruin of petitioner and her children. Underwritten is a letter from Alex. Rigby to Major Hen. Bradshaw and others, urging despatch of her case, that neither she may be wearied with long attendance, nor the public receive obstruction in the ordinary way for raising of present moneys, more valuable than greater sums in the future, for the carrying on of the great work of the kingdom. prisoner to Parliament. Also that 100*l.* be paid to Capt. Rugg, late captain of that island, he having first surrendered it to Parliament.

23 Aug. 1645. Order by the Committee of Parliament for reducing Newcastle and parts adjacent, that Capt. Shafto having taken Col. Haggerston, Papist in arms, and secured Holy Island Fort, &c., shall take possession of Haggerston, Fenwick, and Buckton Manors, cos. Northumberland and Durham, value 270*l.*, belonging to Haggerston, and keep the profits, except $\frac{1}{5}$ allowed to his wife, till 1,430*l.* be paid, giving in a true account; and that after that, he and his men shall be on the old establishment, and have no further claims from this committee. 143 15

1 March 1651. Joan Shafto's petition (missing) referred to Reading. 10 315

4 March. Sir Thomas Haggerston, petitions that Joan Shafto attempts to get his estate, on pretence of arrears due to her husband. The order of Parliament under which she claims was for payment of arrears to the soldiers under her late husband; he and she have for 3 years had possession of most of petitioner's estate, but paid nothing to the soldiers, spoiled the estate, and let the houses go to decay; and since they were outed, they have received sums far exceeding the arrears due. 94 689

In 1643 the captain took from him at his own dwelling money, plate, goods, and cattle, worth 867*l.*, most of which he converted to his own use, "and so ransacked the petitioner's house that they left not the clothes on the petitioner's wife and children's backs."

Before sequestration, he took 30*l.* worth of petitioner's timber, pretending it was for the fort, but converted it to his own use. He used for himself 70*l.* sent him for arms and clothes, had 100*l.* given him by Parliament for taking the fort, whereas it was taken by Capt. Hall, and he only put in to defend it; and he has returned false musters, getting pay for 60 men when he had not 20. Begg that inquiry may be made, and meanwhile the profits of the estate allotted to the poor wronged soldiers.

8 May. Parliament order that the business concerning Capt. Shafto, Governor of Holy Island, and Capt. Rugg, be referred to the Revenue Committee, to report. 143 13

1 October. Petition of Haggerston. His estate being about to be sold, Mrs. Shafto's accounts have been laid before the Committee of Revenue, and by them referred to the County Committee. Has proved most of his points, but could not prove all, the examination being at Durham, "threescore long Northern miles" from Holy Island, where he and the witnesses dwelt, and the committee refusing to allow witnesses' charges, though for the sole benefit of the State. Begg a commission to Lieut.-Col. Mayne, Deputy-Governor of Berwick, or Capt. Love, Deputy-Governor of Holy Island, or a sub-committee for Northumberland, to take his proofs that the Shaftos are greatly in arrears to the State; or if charges may be paid, he will bring his witnesses to Durham. 94 691

His fine was set at $\frac{1}{6}$, whereas he came in before 1 Dec. 1645, and should have it set at $\frac{1}{10}$. In it he had no allowance for dower, doubtful lands, or judgments. Soon after the setting of his fine, Sir James Thynne laid claim to his whole estate, which rendered petitioner incapable of finishing his composition till he had cleared his title. During his suit at law, unknown to him, his fine at $\frac{1}{6}$ was, 14 Jan. 1648, reported to Parliament. In 1648, Sir James had a verdict against his title for the whole estate. He preferred a bill, and in Nov. 1650, obtained a decree for his enjoyment of a good part thereof. 24 Oct. 1645. Compounds pursuant to the order of the House of Commons of 4 Oct. 1645. When sick at Chichester, with his eldest son, Edward Ford, whom the King had made High Sheriff of Sussex, was carried away prisoner to London House. After 10 months' imprisonment, was exchanged. Moved the Earl of Essex for a pass to Harting, but being refused, went into the King's quarters. Joined Sir Ralph Hopton at Winchester, and marched into Essex with him to obtain his rents from his tenants, who paid him none, though he procured protections for as many as asked him. Afterwards saved them from the soldiery by obtaining orders that they should send bread, and not be plundered of their goods.

Being at Winchester when Lieut.-Gen. Cromwell took it, his pass was made for Oxford, but he desired a pass for London, and Cromwell nobly granted him a free pass, not forcing him to go into the King's quarters. Has never contributed to the war against Parliament, nor himself borne arms, nor any servant of his.

On her return, Sutton and Hassall, the tenants, paid her their rents 5 years; but now, Wm. Leversage, jun., tries to force them out by authority of the Committee for Compounding. 1 Nov. 1645. Petitions as sometime an unworthy member of the Commons' House of Parliament. Got out of Oxford 1 June 1644, was examined by Sir Wm. Waller, courteously treated, and dismissed. Went to Combe, co. 	16 November. Sir Michael begs the benefit of the Act of Pardon touching the undervalue of 40 l. a year in a particular of his estates in cos. Middlesex and Lincoln, and in London. The order of 17 July 1651 was only a direction to set out lands to the value of 40 l. a year in lieu of the said undervalue, which is not yet done. Barnes; he continued petitioner as tenant, and they have defended their title, which is now depending in Chancery. Begs that as Philpott has much larger estates from which his fine can be paid, he may not be deprived of his just rights, and a malignant gain possession, on so false a title.	229	87

CLAIMANTS ON THE ESTATE.

26 July 1649? THOS. LAWTON, Minister, and the INHABITANTS OF	75	117
CLAVERLEY plead that their parish has 16 villages, is very populous, and their minister has only 8 l. a year from the Exchequer; they hope to increase it to 50 l. on an agreement with the feoffees to buy in impropriations, but that would not maintain an able minister. As Sir Richard Lee has agreed in his composition to part with Cheswardine Manor, value 120 l. a year, besides the vicarage, they beg 40 l. or 50 l. therefrom.
Noted 20 l. a year.

		30 Jan. 1651. On information that the tithes only amount to 60 l. a year, though 100 l. was granted from them to ministers, the County Committee are to demand from Sir Richard what he covenanted for on his composition.	30	379
		12 February. CAPT. WM. BOTTERELL, Governor of the Castle of Ludlow, Salop, begs a competent settlement on the minister of Ludlow; the maintenance being only 20 l. a year; the ancient corporation and castle garrison are altogether destitute of a minister, and some impropriations for ministers are now to be bought in.	69	740 743

		[13 May 1651.] EDW. JONES, minister of Preston Gubbals, Salop, petitions that the parish was an impropriation belonging to Sir Rich. Lee, Bart., who maintained a minister 64 years at 12 l. a year and his diet. At the minister's death, the County Committee elected petitioner, and gave him all the tithes. He has served seven years, and now the Commissioners have added two townships to the parish, but no increase of maintenance. The tithes are let to Sir Richard at 46 l. 13 s. 4 d. , which is assigned for an increase to the minister of Ludlow, 20 miles off, and Preston and its townships are left without any maintenance for a minister. Begs relief, confirmation of his election, and a maintenance.	95	129

D. 192 609	4 December. Sir Thos. Fairfax to John Ash. I am engaged as	88	953
C.R. 3 258	a feoffee in trust for Sir T. Gower, jun., and recommend him
R. 192 587	to the Committee for Compounding, as one whose moderation towards the Parliament and their friends begat him a long imprisonment by the King, and as one who was also plundered by Earl of Newcastle; I request the Committee for Compounding to look on him as an object of mercy.
	1647? The son begs abatement of 100 l. in his second payment, on	88	958 account of the detention of that amount of his rents by the County Committee for the North Riding.

	FERDINANDO, EARL OF HUNTINGDON, Ashby-dela-Zouch, Co. Leicester.
	2 Dec. 1645. Attended the House of Peers as a member a year	94	669 after he lost his estate in Ireland, when, being unable to subsist in London, he retired with leave of the House to his own house at Donnington Park, where he remained during his father's life, in which time Ashby-de-la-Zouch was made a garrison.
	Went there after his father's death, in error of judgment, and stayed a long time, but neither bore arms, nor gave money, nor joined their counsels, and refused, though often sent for, to go to Oxford. Whilst at Ashby, the County Commissioners sequestered all his estate, and allowed him nothing for himself, wife, and 7 small children but what he compounded for, and he is heavily in debt. Has lost 1,000 l. a year in Ireland, 646 l. in England, and cannot bring up his children.
	Is willing to take the Covenant, and begs such a reasonable composition as the smallness of his offence, and greatness of his charge require, that he may provide for his family, and pay his debts. Noted "The Committee for Compounding are of opinion that the petitioner is within the time of the Ordinance."
	1646? Note that the Leicestershire estates of Henry, late Earl,	94	670 were worth 1,808 l. a year before the wars, but only 900 l. to Earl Ferdinando, by reason of the war, and 300 l. of this is on lease for payment of an annuity.
c. 32 256	2 March 1653. The Earl * and Lucy, his wife, petition the Com-	94	673
	mittee on Articles of War that by Dublin Articles, all Protestants of Ireland, not in the Irish rebellion, were to be secured in their estates and goods there. These articles were made by commission from Parliament, and approved by Parliament, yet the Irish Committee have ordered the seizure of lands held by the Earl in right of his wife, on queries:
	1. Whether those who assisted in the wars in England, should have their estates in Ireland freed?
	2. Whether those should be included who lived in England during the Irish rebellion?
	Has always been a Protestant, was freed from sequestration or composition by the Articles of Ashby-de-la-Zouch, and by the Act of Pardon, therefore, begs leave to enjoy his estates in Ireland.
	2 March. The Committee for Compounding are to certify whether	94	671
	he has done anything to forfeit the benefit of the Articles of War.

* This petition, by a clerk's error, is said to be of Henry, Earl of Huntingdon.—ED.

	of, Parliament having disallowed Jeffery's composition for them, we request that you will pay the 1,100 l. , or show cause.
	31 August. Ceely replies. I am to pay the 1,100 l. when Parlia-	95	1057
	ment requires it, and not at the order of the Committee for Compounding, the bond was ordered to check Jeffery from compounding without giving me notice; but Jeffery, when the committee were full of business, obtained an order to compound for the mortgaged lands and prosecuted it, and thereon I was ordered to give in the security for 1,100 l. , to prevent him from a double advantage.

	3 years' rent of the premises at 75 l. a year in 6 months, the sequestration be taken off, and Ceely's bond restored.
	11 Jan. 1655. Col. Thos. Ceely petitions that Parliament, consider-	116	327
	ing his losses and service, especially in the memorable seige of Lyme by Prince Maurice, ordered him in recompense 2,000 l. , for which he was engaged to several delinquents then in arms, but he could not obtain the passing of the order. These delinquents have since compounded, and he has been forced to pay 100 l. to John Harvey, to Rich. Bragg 350 l. , and John Browne detains lands of his worth much more, on a mortgage for 400 l.
	John Jeffery endeavoured to compound with Parliament in 1646, for lands mortgaged to him by petitioner for 1,100 l. , but Parliament would not permit it; yet in 1649, he compounded for them at Goldsmiths' Hall; but on presentation of the order of Parliament, the composition was revoked, on petitioner's being bound to pay the 1,100 l. when demanded by Parliament. In 1652, Jeffries made an additional composition for the lands, when petitioner was obliged to sell them to pay him the 1,100 l. , but could not get back his bond, unless he paid 225 l. for rent from the date of the revoked order in 1649.
	Often appealed to Parliament, his Highness and Council, but could get no relief, and now his bond is returned into the Exchequer, and his surety is sued for payment, though the 1,100 l. is repaid to Jeffery, who now sues him for interest.
	Begs relief and indemnity, and if in justice, the bond must be levied, begs that it may be on his person and estate, and not that of his friend.

D. 129	429	29 June 1652. MILD MAY, EARL OF WESTMORELAND, begs allowance of his title to $\frac{2}{3}$ of Lord Brudenel's estate. When Robert, eldest son of Lord Brudenel, was taken prisoner on his passage between Dover and Calais, by a Dunkirk man-of-war, a ransom of 3,000 l. was demanded, England and Spain being then at war. The late King was pleased, for his redemption, by letters patent 2 Car., to grant to the then Earls of Rutland and Westmoreland, and to petitioner, by the name of Mildmay, Lord le De Spencer, $\frac{2}{3}$ of the manors, &c., seized for Lord Brudenel's recusancy, for as long as they should remain in the King's hands, at a yearly reserved rent. Upon assurance of this grant, divers sums of money, by the assistance of petitioner's father and the Earl of Rutland, were taken up, and Robert Brudenel, after two years' imprisonment, was released. To this day the greatest part thereof remains unsatisfied. Is the sole survivor interested therein, and begs that the acquittal of Lord Brudenel of delinquency and the discharge of his estate, which, together with the two parts granted to petitioner, were under sequestration for his delinquency, may not prejudice petitioner's right in the said $\frac{2}{3}$.	129 399

| c. 119 361 | 28 May. Charles, Lord Strange, petitions the Committee for Compounding for allowance of his share of the fifth granted to the children of James, Earl of Derby. After long absence from his native country, he now patiently attends the Committee, desirous to evidence his good affection and loyalty.
His wife, child, and family are utterly destitute, all his father's estate being either under sequestration or otherwise disposed of; two of his sisters have been twelve months prisoners in Liverpool, without any allowance, so that they have not a morsel of bread, but by the charity of neighbours are kept from starving. Neither he nor his brothers ever offended against Parliament, but have constantly behaved with all humility and thankfulness for the clemency shewed them.
His fifth will be a very small revenue, as 1,000 l. a year of his father's estate is given to Colonel Martin, 600 l. a year settled on Lady Lincoln, and 100 l. a year on Lady Vere Carr. - 13 August. No part of the fifth is to be allowed to the Countess Dowager, nor to any of her children, other than the proportion allowed to the present Earl. 17 164
- 29 September. The Countess Dowager complains that the County Committee of Lancashire, not finding the word tithes particularly mentioned in the order of 17 June 1652, although included in the general words, and expressed in the deed of jointure, have made stop of the tithes of Holland till further orders. She begs the Committee for Compounding to grant her an order for the tithes. 79 424

- 24 November. Brereton reporting that the tithes are in the deed, they are ordered to be added to the order of 17 June 1652, and discharged. 17 437
- 8 June 1653. Charles, Earl of Derby, petitions the Council of State. Has long attended Parliament, praying for relief for himself, wife, and two small children, out of his late father's estate. God having put the power of doing justice and showing mercy into their hands, presents his true condition and begs consideration, being in hourly danger of arrest for debts entered into for want of maintenance. 230 53
- June? Statement of his case - - - - - 230 54
1. Came from beyond sea, where he lived during the late war, and cast himself on the mercy of Parliament.
 2. Petitioned the Committee for Obstructions, according to the Act for Sale of delinquents' lands, but the deeds being embezzled, could not make out his claim, and his late father's estate is exposed for sale.
 3. Applied to the Committee for Petitions, who thought he should have the unsold remainder of his father's estate at 10 years' purchase, if the House approved, but they were too busy to consider the condition of an innocent sufferer, with a young lady and two small children perishing for want of those necessities which even the greatest delinquents' wives and children are allowed.
- Begs that having suffered the severest rigour, he may now have some support, and an order to keep back the remaining part of his father's estate, which is to be sold in a few days.
- 8 June. Order in the Council of State that an allowance of 500*l.* a year be paid to the Earl of Derby out of the sequestration of the Countess Dowager, his mother, the Committee at Goldsmiths' Hall to take care that it is paid to him quarterly, beginning 24 June 1653. I 69 246 hands since the allowance of her claim. A fifth of her revenue to be defalked according to the order of the Council of State of 10 June 1653. The remainder of her fine to be paid in 14 days.

- 14 July 1654. She petitions the Protector for abatement of the remainder of her fine. Was sequestered for delinquency supposed to be committed during the life of her husband, and as she conceives, is the only woman that ever was sequestered for acting on that side to which her husband adhered. Even those who adjudged her a delinquent thought fit to recommend her case to the last Parliament, who ordered that she should pay three years' purchase for an estate for life, and 5 years for one of inheritance, and further pay 500*l.* to Massey, the prosecutor against her. 230 55

All her estate, except Ormskirk Rectory, and 40*l.* a year more, being but for life, her composition came to 7,200*l.*, and to take off her sequestration, she was forced to pay down 3,600*l.*, besides 500*l.* to Massey, and to give security for the second moiety, and also forced to put in security for the profits received whilst her case was under examination, though they were insufficient for the maintenance of herself and children.

If there be no other motives to compassion, pleads that she is a stranger, born a Protestant, and a widow, and mother of 5 fatherless children; prays that His Highness in his clemency will not think fit that there should be more severity used against her than others. Most of the compositions of the highest delinquents have been but at two years' purchase for inheritance, whereas hers is at 3 years' purchase for her crazy life.

The 4,100*l.* already paid exceeds the proportion of those other compositions, and for the payment thereof she has engaged all her estate. Begg remission of her other payments and delivery of her securities. Petition noted, "Presented by the Lord President as especially recommended to the Council by his Highness."

- R. 79 357 20 July. On motion for staying the order for sequestration for non-payment of her latter moiety till Brereton's report be heard, there being nothing wanting on her part, the report is ordered to be speeded, and the Countess is to pay 1,000*l.* before Tuesday, in part of the latter moiety. Rich. King, a former officer of the County Committee of Lancaster, ordered to bring in the books of Lawrence Owen's accounts, that the Countess may have copies. 27 98
- H. 27 176
- H. 27 176 14 November. JAS. WAINWRIGHT and WM. BROWNSORD, on behalf of Ormskirk parish, petition the Protector for redress, as the parish, containing 4,000 or 5,000 souls, and formerly having 2 ministers, is deprived of all maintenance for them except 40 marks a year, by the composition of the Countess of Derby, from whose estate 90*l.* a year was settled on the minister; but she makes too high demands, hoping remission of the second $\frac{1}{2}$ of her fine. With reference to the Committee at Haberdashers' Hall, to inquire on what terms the former settlement may be confirmed, and to report. 27 186 I 92 111
- 24 November. The Countess offers to accept 13 years' value for the 90*l.* a year, and the Committee for Compounding refer the case to Brereton. 79 373
- 30 November. Brereton reports this offer to be a very great bargain. 27 186 187
- 19 December. Order that 135*l.* 17*s.* 9*d.* be abated of the Countess' fine for allowances made out of the estate limited for her jointure; also 236*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* abated for the rectory of Ormskirk, and 333*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* for the personal estate, the whole sum abated being 706*l.* 1*s.* 11*d.*, which leaves the fine 2,893*l.* 18*s.* 1*d.* Also on her motion to compound for the $\frac{1}{2}$ year's arrears, a fine of 241*l.* 5*s.* 8*d.* is set, which, added to the other fine, makes it 3,135*l.* 3*s.* 9*d.* 12 625 was paid till March 1652. Beg its confirmation with arrears.

 Noted, the County Commissioners to pay what is grown due since the sequestration of the Countess of Derby.

 the full value of Bidston and Upton Manors, Wirral Hundred, co. Chester, and lands, &c., in Macclesfield Forest, in the State's hands by delinquency of the Earl of Derby. Noted, to be let according to instructions.
- P.E. 75 409 24 Sept. 1651. ROB. COYTMOR begs a long renewal of a lease of 75 403
 401 coal and lead mines, at Hawarden, Mold, and Hope Manors, L. 75 407 co. Flint, the inheritance of James, Earl of Derby. The profits were 5 years in the enemy's possession, and his pits and works were destroyed by them.
- 24 September. County Committee of Derby to survey the premises 15 30 and certify their value for 7 years.
- 20 April 1652. County Committee of Flint to examine the survey 16 328 returned to the Drury House Trustees, and if it be the full value, to receive the payments half-yearly, and Coytmor to be continued in possession on security, till the Treason Trustees sell the estate.
- O.T. 79 573 28 September. Discharged from sequestration on his purchase 17 284 thereof.
- C. 75 399 24 June 1657. Coytmor having purchased the mines, his bond 29 106 for security of payment of rent to be returned to him, he having paid all arrears.
- O.T.T. 79 655 10 Dec. 1652. Discharge from sequestration of Bassenthwaite 18 778
 Manor, Cumberland, bought from the Treason Trustees by JOHN CROSTHWAITE and ROGER GREGG.
- L. 65 830, 6 Jan. 1653. John Crossthwaite, for 40 other tenants and pur- 65 824
 824, 832 chasers of the manor of Bassenthwaite, Cumberland, petition L.T.T. 65 828 that on certificate from the Drury House Trustees of their purchase, and payment of the first $\frac{1}{2}$ of the purchase money, the sequestration of the manor was discharged; but it is now laid on again, on pretence of a fine due on the death of [William] Earl of Derby, in 1641, and of another on the death of James,
 Earl of Derby, executed for treason against Parliament.
 The first fine was due long before the wars, but the lands not being sequestered for it, it is discharged on the Act of Pardon.
 The second, if due at all, is due to the heir of the Earl, who is no delinquent, or to the trustees in whom the manor is vested by the Act for Sale; and they having the right, have valued and sold it to petitioners, as appears by their letter, and that of the surveyor. Petitioners are all poor, yet made shift to raise the money, to prevent a stranger coming amongst them; they have long had heavy free-quarter, and have come 200 miles to procure a discharge of this last order, that they may live in peace.
- 6 January. All arrears of the old fine to be paid to the State, 17 573 but as to that for the late Earl, the tenants are to be dealt with kindly, and only $\frac{1}{2}$ asked, because he died an unexpected death;
 if the County Committee of Cumberland cannot agree with the purchasers, they are to certify.

9 Dec. 1650. County Committee report him as one of the most 30 483 violent Cavaliers in the county, but the rents were suspended by order of the Committee for Sequestrations, and the North Riding Committee ordered to try a suit at law with his son.
 They are to sequester him till further order.

16 April 1651. JOHN HUTTON, his eldest son, begs an order to the 93 657
 County Committee for discharge of the seizure on Marske Manor, and for leave to enjoy it. Sir Timothy Hutton, his grandfather, on the marriage of Matthew Hutton, his eldest son, to one of the daughters of Sir Conyers Darcy, now Lord Darcy, by deed dated 20 April 1615, settled it and other lands in co. York on trustees, to the use of himself for life, remainder to Matthew Hutton for life, remainder to his first son and his heirs male, and so to his tenth son of the said Matthew;
 notwithstanding which settlement, petitioner's father, by deed of 6 September, 6 Car., conveyed it to Sir Conyers Darcy, and Conyers Darcy, his son, the said manor being by right of law vested in petitioner.

When he came of age, petitioned the Committee for Seques-trations, and obtained, in Bradshaw's report, their order for the discharge of the sequestration laid on for his father's delinquency, and permission to try his title at law. After trial and long debate at the Lent Assizes at York, had a verdict and judgment thereon, and possession of the premises which he has retained, till the seizure by the County Committee.

He dying before the payment of his fine, Sir Thomas, being possessed of a great part of his estate, became liable to pay in the remainder, by being sued upon the said bond. 140 553

Sir Thos. Reynell now prosecutes petitioners upon the aforesaid recognizance. Pray that in default of Sir Thomas paying in the remainder of the fine, they may be at liberty to pay it in; that counsel for the Commonwealth may apportion the fine of every manor; that the two orders of 28 May 1650 may be discharged, and that their possession may not be disturbed. James Herbert, who married Sir Henry's heir at law, and Sir Thomas Reynell, Sir Henry's son-in-law, paid the last moiety of Sir Henry's fine, and by the vote of 28 May 1650, possession of his lands was given to Herbert. L. 147 499	31 Jan. 1653. Petitions the Committee for relief on the Articles of War. Recites the circumstances of his composition with Capt. Hotham, who—on acquainting Parliament that if he had power like the Earl of Essex to receive submissions, he would be able to effect the return of some persons of quality in Yorkshire to the obedience of Parliament—received authority, by their resolution of 4 Oct. 1642, that the 4th Article of the Lord General's instructions be extracted, and sent to Hotham, with power to publish it. Compounded accordingly, on condition that the matter should not be publicly transacted in Parliament, he being then in the King's quarters; but it was done with the privity of the Committee of Safety, then in full power. On the conclusion of his agreement with Hotham, Lord General Essex, the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Say, and 2 others of that committee sent him a pass to escape, which he attempted, but was hindered by the forces of the Earl of Newcastle, who, after driving Hotham out of Tadcaster, found the said agreement in his chamber, sent it to the King at Oxford, and sent him a prisoner to Newark, and thence to Oxford, where he was indicted for treason. Thence he escaped by means of another pass from the Lord General.	115	603 -606

treasurer to the late King's household, and was summoned by him with the rest of his servants to York, before the war began; but when he went 3 months after to Nottingham, I went home. This was my delinquency; was there ever any less?

I coined my own plate to pay Lord Fairfax's army. Did ever any delinquent do so much? I was for this indicted and arraigned for my life at Oxford, and Parliament at my coming in, fully acquitted me of all delinquency. I have lived ever since without suspicion, and did not expect a diminution of what was so justly and solemnly adjudged for me.

Wortley, Bart.,* was unable to obtain a commission for examination of witnesses, and thus obtain relief in this court, and is in danger of prosecution at the York assizes,—whereon he prays either publication of proceedings and a hearing, or a stay of proceedings on the indictment,—for a stay accordingly, until his case has been heard before this Committee; but he is to give recognizances in the case concerning the death of a man.	230	183
	11 March. County Commissioners certify that, with Staresmore's consent, they have let his mansion at Frolsworth to Roger, son of Sir Roger Smith, for 7 years at 40 s. , he engaging to repair it, as it is much out of repair.	161	605
ART. 230 185	15 March. Wortley petitions the Protector. Surrendered on the Articles of Ashby-de-la-Zouch, yet is prosecuted in Yorkshire, and held liable for the death of Edw. Bailiffe, condemned by a council of war as a renegado. Attended the Committee on Articles of War, with the Protector's ordinance for his protection and indemnity; but before a hearing, the proceedings were suspended, because of his addresses to the Protector, by whose order his Secretary of state wrote to the judges for the Northern Circuit last summer, staying all proceedings.	230	184
C. 230 186	Stands bound by recognizances to an appearance. Begs relief, that he may be indemnified and wholly discharged, and that the recognizances may be vacated. With order thereon to Attorney-Gen. Prideaux to prepare a pardon, and transmit the same for his Highness's signature.

H. 27 87	14 July 1654. Lady Wortley's case to be heard on reference from the Protector, and Reading and Brereton to report. Stareshmore and Faunt to pay to the State their debts due to Wortley.	27	93
	1 Sept. Order in Council advising that Sir Francis Wortley be admitted to the benefit of articles made on the surrender of Ashby-de-la-Zouch.	I 75	556
	2 Sept. Order in Council, that if it be found that he is worthy of being comprised in the Articles of Ashby-de-la-Zouch, and so to compound at 2 years' value, though he was omitted from the list, he be allowed to compound at that rate, Col. Needham certifying that he was in the garrison.	230 I 75	188 189 559
	9 Feb. 1655. Wm. Barford, schoolmaster of Nuneaton Free School, Warwick, complains of the refusal of the County Commissioners for Leicester to pay him the board, lodging, &c., of Stareshmore's two sons with him, from the rents of his estate.	120	629

C. 33 424 230 190	27 Feb. Referred by them to Reading, to report - - -	27	322
	3 April. Major Jeremiah Tolhurst, commander at Carlisle, petitions the Protector. The garrison, citadel, castle, and drawbridges are very ruinous, there having been no repairs since Col. Fitch commanded them 3½ years ago, except a few necessary ones, for which I have had to pay. On this account most of the soldiers have to be quartered in the city, which is not safe in these dangerous times; also on this account more guards have to be kept, so that the soldiers fall sick because they are at every second night's duty now, when so many prisoners are sent in from Cumberland and Westmoreland, on account of the late rising. If the place be not repaired this summer, it will cost so much the more.	230 I 92	191 88
	There is money in the hands of Geo. Faunt, of Leicestershire, and on 22 May 1649, Parliament ordered the Haberdashers' Hall Committee to send for Faunt, and to order so much of the 1,500 l. discovered by him as belongs to the State to be paid for Carlisle garrison. Col. Fitch thereupon demanded it, but Faunt, not having ready money, granted the Colonel a statute to secure it, and in May 1651, paid 500 l. , so that 1,000 l. remains in his hands, or 700 l. , if he be allowed the $\frac{1}{5}$ for his discovery. Faunt offers to pay 700 l. on delivery of the statute, which is with Fitch's wife in London, but he should pay the whole 1,000 l. according to his security, as the money was discovered by others to be in his hands. Begs an order to Fitch to give up the security, that the garrison may be speedily repaired.
R. 27 427 230 193	11 July. Order in Council on report, for stay of all proceedings of the Committee for relief on Articles of War in this case.	230 I 76	192 175
	3 Sept. Sir Francis renews his petition to the Protector for the benefit of the Articles of Ashby-de-la-Zouch. Being indicted in Yorkshire for the death of Edw. Bayliffe, though the principal, Rob. Johnson, is at large, appealed to the Committee for relief on Articles of War for indemnity, but a doubt was raised because his name was casually omitted from the compounders in the garrison. Appealed to his Highness, and had an order of 2 Sept. 1654 for full benefit of the articles, if comprised therein, which he has proved. The Attorney-General wrote to stay proceedings at the assizes, as the case was ready for hearing before the Committee for relief on Articles of War,	230	194

		4 Sept. 1655. Order in Council to request his Highness to order the justices of assize not to proceed on the indictment against him, as his claim to Ashby Articles depends before the Committee for relief on Articles of War.	I 76	265
		4 Jan. 1656. Major Jer. Tolhurst renews his petition. The 2,750 l. in Geo. Faunt's hands was ordered for repair of Carlisle Castle; 600 l. was paid to the committee of co. Leicester, 600 l. secured for Sir A. Hesilrigge, and a statute granted to Col. Fitch for 1,500 l. , of which 500 l. is paid; begs that the whole sum, except an allowance to Faunt for his discovery, may be paid for the garrison, and the statute delivered to petitioner by Col. Fitch. With order in the Committee for Petitions, that the Treasury Commissioners get in the money and certify.	I 92	104

c.	34 65 74	15 April 1657. Petition of Sir Fras. Wortley, Bart., for a warrant to the Attorney General to prepare a bill for his pardon for the death of Edw. Bayliffe. The question was referred by his Highness to the Committee for relief on Articles of War, but before a hearing, the power of that court ended. Noted as referred to Council.	230	195
		11 Nov. Order in the Committee for Petitions that he should have the benefit of the Ashby Articles, though he did not enter his name as wishing to compound, not having then any estate under sequestration, and though he is questioned for an act done in Wortley garrison, whereof he was governor, before the said Articles.	230	196
		18 March 1658. Lady Wortley petitions the Protector. George Faunt has owed her these 16 years 2,900 l. , which was settled on her as a provision before marriage. A suit thereon depends in Chancery, but that court will not proceed therein, because of a reference from Council to the Treasury Commissioners, on the petition of Major Jer. Tolhurst, of Carlisle, suggesting that Parliament gave the money for that garrison. In their report they advise a trial at law, as to whether the money was settled before marriage, and whether she is a delinquent, and advise that Carlisle be provided for some other way. As Faunt has only a life interest in his estate, should he die before payment, she will lose all the money, part of which was in trust with her as executrix to widows and orphans, and the rest is most of her estate. Begs a trial at law, or some decision.	230	197

D. 78 491 492	18 May. JOHN CHAMBERLAIN, by virtue of two copies of court-rolls and a lease for life, made 20 years since, claims an estate in lands and tenements mentioned in an order of the Committee for Compounding, which were never sequestered. It is untruly suggested by Richard Chamberlain, his brother, that he claims by conveyance since his father's delinquency, and thereupon the tenants were required to pay their rents to the said Richard. As Richard sues petitioner in Chancery for the said tenements, and as petitioner was not heard at the making of the said order, begs that his title to the premises may be stated by counsel, and that meantime the said order be suspended.	74	203

c. 179 247	The father begs to compound through his son. Is 60 years old, and unable to travel. Sir Paul Pindar, of which he is utterly ignorant. Confesses that Sir John Wolstenholme, Sir John Harrison, Sir John Jacob, and the heirs and executors of Sir Paul Pindar, owe Robert Davis, petitioner's father-in-law, above 3,200*l.*, which is in danger to be lost, as Sir Paul is dead, deeply indebted, Sir John Jacob is a prisoner, Sir John Harrison obscures himself, and a statute of bankruptcy is issued against Sir John Wolstenholme. The money, if recovered, and other sums on like security, would belong to petitioner's younger children by his first wife, who brought a great portion, which was settled upon them by deed of 20 June 1642. Begg that he may suffer no prejudice by delay in settlement of his cause, and that he may have the benefit of the votes of 2nd Oct. 1650, so as to compound for the omission on Oxford Articles.

	18 June.	Ordered to be released from imprisonment in Chester -	3	142
c. 180 313	31 Oct.	The inhabitants of Churton Heath, Warburg Chapelry, beg that the overplus of Boughton tithes, of which Edw. Russell, of Chester, has a lease from the Dean and Chapter of Chester, and compounded for them at an undervalue of 45 l. a year, may be granted to their chapel, in augmentation of the means, now only 7 l. a year, of their able orthodox minister.	180	310
	Oct?	They petition the Committee for Plundered Ministers to like effect. The chapel, almost 4 miles from the cathedral, is one of the ancientest in the county, and was anciently called the Church on the Heath; and the 7 l. allowance is in the hands of Sir Hugh Calveley. Their minister is an able and honest man, and they desire a competent allowance for him. [Signed by Sir Hugh Calveley, Chas. Walley, and 55 others.] With a certificate signed by Col. Wm. Massey, governor, and 7 others of the Committee for Chester, that the contents of this petition are true, and that the chapel is in a very con- venient place for a congregation. Noted for the County Com- mittee to certify the true value of the tithes, meantime Mr. Russell is not to compound for them.	180	312

JOHN LEWKNOR, and MARY, his Mother, West Dean, Sussex.

P.E. 186 598,	28 April 1646. He begs to compound. In 1643, when quietly residing at home, in perfect obedience to the Parliament, being then the King's ward, aged but 19, was, by a party of the State soldiers, causelessly pillaged of his goods, stripped of his clothes, violated in his person, and so threatened with wounds and torments that he was forced to fly to the enemies' quarters, 6 miles distant. The soldiers had no other pretext against him save that he had some of his name on the adverse party, arguing that he therefore was a malignant. His narrative is notoriously known to all the country, the County Committee at Chichester having expressed much sorrow for the accident. But for this violence, would never have taken arms against Parliament. Has been sequestered, lost many of his goods, and his woods have been felled at a loss of 2,000 l . Since his coming into the Parliament's quarters, the Committee for Plundered Ministers have granted 80 l . a year out of his impropriations for augmentations of livings. The tenants plead that they owe no arrears to Lady Brooke, as the estate was sequestered for Lord Cobham's debts 19 June 1646, and their claim allowed by the Committee for Sequestrations; yet Lady Brooke has distrained their cattle, and keeps the cattle by armed soldiers in Cooling Castle, and forced them to pay her money, without any security against their being sued for it, and suits have been commenced against them. They beg dismissal, that they may make good their case at Kent assizes.	101	873

D.	184	199	22 Aug. Committee for Compounding to the County Committee for Devon. Notwithstanding our suspension of Were's sequestration, he having paid or secured his fine, you, on 13 August, set his lands in Donesmore, compounded for by him, at 95 l . a year, to Hen. Turpin, of Therverton, for one year, at 60 l ., although 100 l . was then proffered, refusing to conform to the letters of suspension; we wonder that you express such refractoriness, and are so ill husbands for the State as to refuse almost double the rent you have accepted,—a thing which, if represented to the House, will meet with no fair interpretation.	3	215
R.	184	185	22 Aug. Committee for Compounding to Hen. Turpin. You have threatened that if any order come down to force you to quit your bargain, you would post it up, that all men might thereby take heed how they deal with this Committee. This is to let you know that this language of yours is recorded here, and if anything be published that may reflect upon this action of the Committee, they know where to charge it, and you shall be sure to hear of it in a way which will no way stand with your liking.	3	218

LESSEES AND PURCHASERS OF THE ESTATE.

- 9 July 1651. JOHN WHALEHEAD, of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Middlesex, begs a lease of a farm in Shelford, co. Notts, which his ancestors have held for 100 years, part of the lands of the Earl of Chesterfield, sequestered for his delinquency. The County Committee have divided it, and intend to let a moiety. Has been a soldier in the Parliament's service and been wounded therein, and lost the use of one of his arms. 128 257
- 9 July. County Committee to view, survey, and certify - - 14 196
- 15 April 1652. Lieut. THOS. LUPTON and other INHABITANTS OF BURTON-CUM-BULCOTE, co. Notts, petition. The late County Commissioners leased to Lupton for 1 year the tithes of Burton-cum-Bulcote, sequestered for the delinquency of Philip, Earl of Chesterfield, at the rent of 60*l.* a year, and he sub-let them to the inhabitants, who had duly paid their rent. Since then, and since the Parliament order granting pre-emption to tenants in taking sequestered lands, Fras. Heape secretly obtained a 7 years' lease of the tithes before the expiration of the time limited for posting, at 53*l.*, being an undervaluation of 7*l.*, pretending a trust from them, to whom he now refuses to let their tithes, according to their former rent of 60*l.*, but racks and oppresses them, exacting what he pleases. Beg redress. 231 123
- 27 July 1652. FOULKE BOOKEY, of Gedling, co. Notts, begs a lease for 7 years, at the rent of 133*l.*, of the tithes of Gedling Rectory and Burton Joyce Manor, co. Notts, sequestered for the delinquency of the Earl of Chesterfield. 82 875

- 11 Aug. County Committee to inquire and report - - 71 663
- 1 Dec. County Committee say that the late Committee granted a lease of the tithes for 5 years to Fras. Heape, on behalf of the tenants, who petition for its continuance, they having lost much by free quarters to soldiers, decay of their arable land during the war, expenses of re-tilling, &c., and Heape has let each tenant his own tithes, to their great content; they beg continuance of the lease. 17 139
- 2 Dec. Heape and the inhabitants of Burton and Bulcote petition to like effect. [15 signatures.] 164 199
- 16 March 1653. Bookey begs a lease for 7 years of the tithes of Gedling, Stoke, Burton, and Bulcote, at the rent of 100*l.* a year. 164 201
- 16 March. The tithes to be let by the "box" [auction], but the Committee for Compounding prefer that the inhabitants should bid for them rather than any particular person. 82 876
- 17 March. Notice to be given that 100*l.* is bid for the tithes - 25 17 82 878
- 24 May 1653. THOS. BROWNE and 2 others beg clearance of their title to a 7 years' lease of the lands of the Earl of Chesterfield, in Shelford, Saxondale, Newton, and Radcliffe, co. Notts, granted them in March 1651, rent 1,005*l.*, by the County Committee, confirmed by the Committee for Compounding 23 July following, and allowed in June last by the Committee for Removing Obstructions, but since called in question, because in the order of confirmation, no term is mentioned. Noted that the Committee for Compounding can give no order of confirmation upon what is produced before them. 71 349

963	lived conformably to all ordinances of Parliament at his own house, within 3 miles of Newport. Being informed that the County Committee at Aylesbury intended to sequester his estate, went thither and received a shot in his throat from a soldier of the garrison, which damnified him 500 l. In July 1645, petitioned the committee of the 3 counties, Berks, Bucks, and Oxon, and obtained an order that the Committee of Aylesbury should certify the truth of his petition. Immediately afterwards, was arrested at the suit of Rob. Forrest, which so retarded his business, that before he could procure his certificate, the power of compounding was taken from the committee of the said 3 counties. Has been otherwise hindered from coming to London to compound.

Somerset, and 200 l. a year of those of Stourton Manor, co. Wilts, and notwithstanding the order to the County Committees of Wilts and Somerset to divide Lord Stourton's estate in those counties into three parts, and to lay out the demesnes of Marston and Stourton for the third of Lord Stourton, against which petitioner might take his remedy at law—he cannot have the effect of the said deed, Lord Stourton having had allowance in his composition for Stourton of the 200 l. a year as an incumbrance, and having omitted to compound for Little Marston, as belonging to petitioner's wife. Begg that as 6,000 l. was paid for the deed long before Lord Stourton's delinquency, he may have the benefit of it. Lord Stourton's estate does not amount to 800 l. a year.	100	255 small tithes. It was settled on him by Sir Lewis Dives, who let the estate with that condition, as did the former committee, and we think it advantageous.

CLAIMANTS ON, OR LESSEES AND TENANTS OF THE ESTATE.

8 May 1650. Information against JOHN BENNET, of Stagsden, JOHN ALBONE or ALBANY, and HEN. LOWENS and HUGH RODWELL, of Bromham, co. Bedford, servants or tenants of Sir Lewis Dives, by the County Committee of Bedford:—

That Bennet bought Sir Lewis Dives' cattle for 140*l.* when he went to the King's army, and 2 or 3 years after the taking of Sir Lewis and his lady in Sherborne Castle, paid the money to Lady Howard Dives, wife of Sir Lewis, who came to Bromham, boasting that he had gained 2,000*l.* by the State. He treated with Sir Lewis for the stock at Towcester in 1644. Also he conveyed Sir Lewis away from Whitehall, where he was prisoner, and brought him to Bedford, and then Bennet went freely to Oxford, a King's garrison.

Hen. Lowens kept a guard at his house, and guarded the bridge of Bromham with a chain and posts against the Parliament soldiers, and Lord Fielding, riding over the bridge, was stayed by Sir Lewis' servants; others acting for Parliament were imprisoned by Lowens. He also got money of Bennet for Sir L. Dives.

John Albany also went divers times to Oxford, armed his sons against Parliament, and gave them money, and said he hoped to see all the Roundhead rogues hanged and their throats cut.

Hugh Rodwell, a servant of Sir Lewis, conveyed him away from Whitehall, where he was a prisoner, and brought him to Bedford. Rodwell was also in the first and second wars with the Scots.

4 June. The Committee for Compounding thank the County Committee for their information, and beg continued care until the parties acquit themselves of delinquency.

21 Feb. 1651. Albone, Lowens, and Bennet beg a copy of the information against them, being sequestered they know not why. Granted.

21 Oct. The County Committee of Bedford report their letting to Thos. Ballard, of Elston, lands of Dives, lately held by Bennet.

30 Oct. Confirmation to Ballard and John Green of Bedford, of a 6 years' lease of lands in Bromham, sequestered from Sir L. Dives.

18 Nov. Rodwell petitions that in 1643, he had a lease from Sir Lewis Dives of lands in the county, which are now in the Act for Sale of delinquents' lands, and the County Committee having driven away his cattle and seized his goods, value 6*l.*, threaten to dispossess him, being very poor, and having a wife and 3 small children. Has been faithful to Parliament, and been at great charge, spending 14*l.* on the estate. Begs to be admitted tenant.

18 Nov. Order to the County Committee to let according to instructions.

9 Dec. They certify that Rodwell had never paid rent; that his lease, produced after long delay, was counterfeit; that he was Dives' servant, and suspected to have had a hand in his last escape, being a crafty, subtle fellow. At the surrender of Oxford, he got Dives' goods conveyed away, being several heavy trunks of plundered plate. They have therefore let the estate to Hen. King, who formerly held it for the widow and children of his brother Thomas, till dispossessed by the Cavaliers.

THOMAS HURST, D.D., Barrowby, Co. Lincoln.
P.E. 197 395	4 June 1646. Begg to compound on Newark Articles. His house	197	394
-397	being near the King's garrison, resided there, but never bore arms nor otherwise supported the forces.
	26 July. JOHN SOMERSALL, of Leonard's, Shoreditch, petitions. Master Hurst being executor of Lewis Somersall, of Grantham, co. Lincoln, my uncle, whose daughter he married, and who died worth 10,000 l. , Hurst instigated him to give nothing to any of his kindred that were Roundheads. He had 500 l. a year, kept his coach and footboy, and "it was his usual custom, when he did invite any gentlemen of his own coat to his table, to have a set of music to usher in each several dish." On 15 July 1646, he said that these Roundheads were the most pestilent people that lived, and as for Puritans, he could not abide them. He also said that, for aught I knew, he had moneys beyond seas. I answered the commonalty paid for it.	118	691
	Again, when I said that a man of his learning and estate might do more hurt to the State than 1,000 fighting soldiers could do, his answer was that now he should pay dear enough for it, and he was bound to serve his Majesty, being the King's chaplain, as my apprentice was bound to serve me; that it should never be said that the Hursts would prove base; and further, that "the malignants made a full account to have beaten us, but now, we having beaten them, they must stoop unto us, whether they would or no;" and that they hoped for his Majesty's sudden coming to town, which makes them delay to bring in their moneys. Hurst uttered many other words savouring of strong malignancy.
L.C.C. 197 403	Dec. ? Dr. Hurst complains that the certificate of the County Committee does not distinguish his lands in fee from those which are for lives only, and begs to be allowed to put in his own particular.	92	244

Vol. No.
G or p.

		21 Jan. 1647. Certifies that in his composition is included the clear yearly value of 100 l. above the crown rent, for the wine licences of cos. Devon and Cornwall.	3	388
		23 Jan. Committee for Compounding will represent to the House the non-conformity of the Committee of Westminster to their orders, if they do not reinstate petitioner into his house in the Strand, where Lady Drake lives.	3	389
R.C.	14 174	24 June 1651. Reynell complains that the Committee of Middlesex have ordered his tenant of a house compounded for at an alleged undervaluation to pay them 33 l. 6 s. 8 d. , with arrears, being the difference between 6 l. 13 s. 4 d. , the amount compounded for, and 40 l. the tenant's rent. The informant concealed from the County Committee its ruinous condition when compounded for, Lady Drake, the former tenant, having broken down great part of the walls, digged up the ground, and pulled up the floors in search of treasure, so that the tenant, Rich. Blake, had to expend 300 l. in repairs, besides 83 l. 14 s. spent by petitioner. Begs that the County Committee may be required to pay him 60 l. for three years' arrears of a head rent of 20 l. a year, which they were formerly ordered by Parliament to pay to the Countess of Exeter for the said house, but did not pay, and petitioner was obliged to pay it to gain possession of the house, Lady Drake, tenant from 1644 to 1648, having received a free grant of the said house from Parliament. 12 June 1646.	SIR EDW. BERKELEY, &c.— cont.
	11 May 1650. The son begs abatement of his fine, in consideration of two mistakes in his particular. Donyatt Farm, stated to be his in tail, is only his for life, being so settled by his father upon petitioner's marriage. Lamyatt Farm, for which he was fined 300 l. for his annuity of 200 l. charged upon it for 23 years, was purchased of Edw. Davis, of Lamyatt, co. Somerset, who had, unknown to him, formerly acknowledged a judgment to — Huttoffe, of Salisbury, for a debt of 600 l. , which with interest and law-charges, now amounts to 1,012 l. ; and since petitioner's composition, Huttoffe has extended the lands, and is in possession by order of the County Committee. Is thus defrauded by Davis of the annuity, and of the money he paid for it. Is now a prisoner in the common gaol of Ivelchester for debt.			67 299 301
P.E. 79 109	21 June 1650. His composition being reported before he could pay in his second moiety, he was denied a review and letters of suspension till he paid the whole fine, which he could not do till May 1650. Begs a suspension or discharge.			67 343

Contracted in 1641 with John Parrish for the purchase of lands to be settled on him and his heirs, for 150 l. , to be paid when the settlement was perfected. Yet the governor of Lyme Regis, taking Parrish to be a delinquent, imprisoned petitioner for the said sum, one month in Lyme, and 10 or 11 months in Portsmouth, because he would not pay the said sum, as not due till the settlement was made, which is not done yet. Afterwards paid 118 l. and gave security for the rest, and for doing so, was imprisoned by Sir Robt. Brett, of the King's army. Being released, was so harassed by the soldiers of Lyme garrison for non-payment of the remaining money, that he fled to Exeter, where he lived privately till its surrender.			182 438

on his Estate.

[16 June 1646.] RICHARD FRANCKLYN, of Sherston, Wilts, petitions 86 415
the House of Commons, that his son, Capt. John Francklyn, had an estate for life in certain copyholds of the Marquis of Hertford's manor of Sherston, for which petitioner paid 200*l*.
Having an estate therein for years, determinable on the lives of himself and Philip Francklyn, his uncle, paid the Marquis 460*l*. in 1637, for exchanging Philip's life for that of John, and adding that of Richard, petitioner's son.

At the beginning of the wars, resisted the Marquis' attempt to engage him and his sons against Parliament, on the promise if they lost their lives, to grant the said estate to others of the family, and furthered his son John in raising a company for Parliament, under Sir Neville Poole, one of the deputy-lieutenants of co. Wilts, with which he marched to Wells and to Marlborough, in defence of which his son, and his kinsman, John Francklyn, then M.P., were taken prisoners and carried to Oxford, where, after $\frac{1}{2}$ year's imprisonment, his son died as if by poison. During this time he was maintained, and his distressed soldiers were relieved by petitioner, who had no pay from Parliament, and therefore cannot now pay his debts, nor provide for his family, having been for more than 2 years driven from home. Begg his son's arrears of pay, and a grant of the estate to his nominees.

16 June. Petitions the Committee at Goldsmiths' Hall, that 86 414 pending his attendance on the House of Commons for answer to the foregoing, the Marquis of Hertford may not be admitted to composition till petitioner's grievances are considered.

P.R. 3 243 22 Sept. Petition renewed to like purport, stating the con- 86 455 sideration for the estate to have been 700*l*., and begging a report of his case to Parliament, whenever the Marquis' case is reported, and for the estate lost by John to be conferred on another son of petitioner's.

P.E. 191 613 22 Sept. WILLIAM, MARQUIS OF HERTFORD, begs to compound on 191 600

NOTE 191 603 31 Dec. Having paid 1,000*l*., and being unable to procure the 191 607 remainder, his estate being only for life, begs a review.

P.R. 4 152	20 Dec. Begs abatement of his fine. By mistake his bailiffs named some rents in his particular as old rents, which turn out to be improved rents. Also a tenement was described in his particular as lying in Euxton, whereas it is the next town, Charnock. Valued his demesnes and tithes together, and if there were any glebe lands, he valued them as tenement lands, with tithes of the tenancies, being full as much as they are expressed; he desires that if he must part with them, he may part only with the tithes of the tenancies, and that his demesnes may be discharged of tithes, and that the glebe lands, if any, compounded for as tenement lands, may not be conveyed. He compounded for the manor of Male as in possession, but has only an estate in reversion, and desires abatement therefor.	188	884

	April 1648? The INHABITANTS OF THE PORT AND CORPORATION OF LIVERPOOL, co. Lancaster, petition Parliament for redress for their losses out of the estates of the Earl of Derby, Lord Molineux, and ten others of co. Lancaster, most being Papists in arms, the principal procurers of the enemy's advance into the county, and their chief abettors in robbing and spoiling petitioners. On pretence of being Commissioners, they sat in the town to let and sell the tenements, lands, and goods of the inhabitants, without allowing them a fifth part.	188	928
	Beg satisfaction for 800 l. for quartering the Parliament's soldiers. They seriously affected the common cause with Parliament, opposing all who sided with the malignants in co. Lancaster, which was "extremely infected with the contagion of Popery and malignancy, whereof it yet foully savoureth." Prince Rupert being promised great sums by the Popish faction and the malignants, who comprised all the nobility and most of the gentry, marched into the county, beleaguered Liverpool as the most convenient place for the Irish and Welsh to join him, and assaulted the city; he was several times repulsed with the loss of many hundreds of his men, and would never have taken it had not the seamen deserted their posts in the night, the commanders and soldiers being on the other side of the town. The enemy entered at their void sconces, mercilessly massacred some of the soldiers and inhabitants, and imprisoned petitioners, spoiling them of their estates to the value of 23,000 l.
	12 Aug. COL. JOHN MOORE, M.P., and the well-affected inhabitants of Liverpool, with hundreds made widows and fatherless children by Prince Rupert's army, petition to the same effect.	188	939

4 Dec. 1650. ELIZABETH, MARY, and ANNE CHAWORTH, sisters of Patricius, Viscount Chaworth, petition that John, Lord Chaworth, their father (in consideration that Elizabeth, Viscountess Camden, secured to them 3,000l. a piece), in Easter term, 15 Car., conveyed the manors of Harthill and Woodall, co. York, to Richard Bennet, to sell for satisfying 2,000l. a piece to them at the age of 18 or at marriage; and for further securing the same, acknowledged a statute to Adrian May and Solomon Swale. The said manors being sequestered for their father's delinquency, and now on sale, are only worth 3,600l.; therefore to raise the 2,000l. each, petitioners are obliged to seek relief upon the statute. Beg leave to take legal advantage thereof, Elizabeth being 18 years of age, and Mary and Anne on the point of marriage.

28 Dec. Revenue Committee to the Committee for Compounding. 113 621
In July 1644, we granted Lord Chief Baron Wilde, then serjeant-at-law, the keepership of Hainault Walk, Waltham Forest, but we hear that the walk has, by your order, been sequestered by the County Committee for Essex, for delinquents are incapable of compounding for any office, the County Commissioners had no right to dispose of the keeper-ship, and therefore we desire that the Lord Chief Baron may enjoy his right.

1 July 1646.	ED. VERNON, Hanbury, Co. Worcester.
P.R. 182 679	Begs to compound. His habitation was in the middle of the King's quarters. He never was in arms, nor assisted the King with money, men, or arms. In Feb. 1645, appeared before the Committee of Worcester on a charge of subscribing, with others, a warrant, of which there was never any fruit, nor anything done thereby to the prejudice of Parliament; yet he compounded for 200 l. with the County Committee, before whom he would have taken the Covenant, but they thought it rather fit that he should enter into a bond for 1,000 l. , with sureties, not to act against Parliament, nor go into any of the King's garrisons uncompelled. Since that composition, he has been thrice carried prisoner to Worcester for his supposed disaffection to the King's cause. With letters from Prince Rupert 14 and 18 May 1645, blaming his disaffection, and ordering his confinement in Ludlow Castle, till he pays 500 l. for the King's service.	182	674,

	3 Nov. He petitions the Committee for relief on Articles of War. His father could not return from Italy without hazard of life, and died there, without taking the Oath and Covenant, though he had been exempted from them by Exeter Articles, and on that ground his composition had been deferred. Petitioner being then an infant, paid $\frac{1}{6}$ for the personal estate, but was not allowed to compound for the real estate, and has had no $\frac{1}{6}$ since his father's death, 4 years ago. Begg to compound on Exeter Articles, with allowance for what he has paid, and for the profits from the estate, and repayment of the overplus.	138	485
	3 Nov. They order the Committee for Compounding to certify whether the father forfeited the benefit of Exeter Articles, and Lord Fairfax's certificate that he was comprised therein to be produced.	138	483

The Committee for Compounding are to certify why they did not allow him to compound on Exeter Articles in right of his father.	138	487
	4 Jan. 1653. The inappropriate rectory of Rockbeare, held by his father, and claimed by him, excepted from composition, with- out an order of Parliament, according to a Parliament order 25 March 1650, because it is an estate in fee, and he is the heir male, therefore it is to continue under sequestration.	17	561
	19 Jan. Cuthbert Pepper complains that though he always paid 20 s. tithes for lands in South Cowton, co. York, and nothing in kind, Cuthbert Wettenhall, farmer of Mr. Sainthill's seques- tered estate, claims tithes in kind, and sued him at law therefor, yet did not proceed to trial, but got an order from the County Committee to him to pay them, or show cause to the contrary. Begg not to be compelled to pay till trial at law, or hearing before the Committee for Compounding.	110	314

Having never been sequestered, they have no discharge, and there is no proof of their delinquency; beg dismissal, and an order to the late Committee to certify whether they were sequestered before 25 Jan. 1650, and what has been received out of their estate, that the whole truth may appear.	115	455

	July? THOS. CARR, postmaster of Berwick, petitions that he has held his office through the war, done Parliament good service, and suffered much in their cause. Hears that Edw. Grey of Cowpon wants to compound for part of his inheritance at Higham Dykes. He and his ancestors having been in possession 100 years, desires that Grey may not compound therefor till the case has been tried at law. With note by John Ash that this petition is to be produced when Grey comes to compound.	73	297 300
	5 Feb. 1651. Carr renews his petition; he and his father long held lands in Higham Dykes, Northumberland, sequestered as the estate of Col. Edw. Grey of Cowpon, who had no title thereto. On appeal to the Commissioners for Sequestrations in 1646, had leave to enter the lands and try his title at law, the sequestration notwithstanding; but Grey has violently dispossessed him of the premises, and still continues therein. Begg reference to counsel, that he may be restored to his ancestors' inheritance.	73	285

THOMAS BENNETT, Barnston-in-Wirral, Co. Chester,

P.E. 186 172	30 July 1646. Thomas Bennett compounds for delinquency in	186	170
c. 186 175	bearing arms against Parliament at the siege of Chester.

R. 186 167	16 Jan. 1652. Having elapsed the payment of the second half of	12	390 his fine, the estate to be re-sequestered.
L.C.C. 148 287	15 Feb. 1653. Peter Bennett, brother and heir of Thos. Bennett,	67	554
INT. } 148 281	states that his brother died soon after paying 50 l . of his fine,		555
& D. } -286	when by deeds made long before the wars, the real estate came to petitioner, and the personal estate to the wife and her child.
	The County Committee 2 years ago demanded of him 45 l ., the balance of the fine, but being a minor and a scholar at school, he could not raise money to pay it, and therefore he assigned his rents over to them till it was paid. Begg an order to them to certify what they have received, and discharge of the estate if it appear that the whole fine is paid.
	15 Feb. County Committee to certify, and Brereton to examine	17	672 the deed, and certify his title to the estate.
	4 Sept. The widow petitions for allowance of her third part,	67	552 as her dower. On promise from Peter Bennett, the heir, of repayment, she paid the first moiety of the fine imposed on her husband, who died without having paid any of it. At his death she recovered $\frac{1}{3}$ of the estate which is now sequestered. The $\frac{2}{3}$ of the estate are quite sufficient to satisfy the remainder of the fine.
	14 Sept. Order that the second moiety of the fine be paid with	25	199 interest, and then the estate will be discharged, provided the sequestration was laid on only for its non-payment, and since the Act of Pardon.
	15 Feb. 1654. The widow's petition renewed to the same effect as	67	550 before. She also begs re-payment of the rents received by the County Committee since re-sequestration.
D. 67 551	24 Feb. Peter Bennett renews his petition for discharge; has	67	547 paid 20 l . towards the fine, and 50 l . for rent, and the lands are only worth 20 l . a year, yet the sequestration continues, to the ruin of himself, wife, and children, who were driven out of Ireland, and he has no $\frac{1}{5}$, but his brother's widow has had her $\frac{1}{3}$.
	24 Feb. The sequestration to be discharged on proof that the com-	12	603 pounder had only a life interest in the lands, the 20 l . paid to be part of the fine, and the 25 l . balance to be accepted without interest.
	23 March. The Treasurers at Goldsmiths' Hall ordered to accept	12	609 the fine without interest.
P.E. 24 1160	24 March. Paid and estate discharged	24	1160

	order for them.
	14 Sept. Granted; and if the money is already paid in, he is	27	117 to be repaid from other sequestration money.
	10 April 1655. Thomas, son of Thos. Bennett, begs discharge of	67	543

HUNTINGDON HASTINGS CORNEY, Steeple Barton,
Co. Oxon.

Some of the inhabitants of co. Oxon petition William, Viscount Say and Sele, and others of the County Committee, in Corney's behalf; he was a wall of preservation to them when their lives were in great danger, and he was ready in the darkest times to promote their advantage. He constantly kept his house till towards the end of the troubles. Being invited by persons of known integrity, he often repaired to Woodstock and Oxford, to act there for petitioners' advantage. Beg that he may have the benefit of the clause in the Act of Parliament, to clear himself before the County Committee upon his oath concerning his religion, he being informed against as a Papist in arms. [13 signatures.]

The County Committee subscribe this petition, certifying that they are fully satisfied of its truth, that it is subscribed by persons of quality, who are cordially well affected, and that Mr. Corney "has often much hazarded himself to do service for those whose lives and fortunes have not been too dear to venture for the preservation of this present Parliament."

	RICHARD PILKINGTON, by MARY, his Wife, Longley, Co. York.
D. 112 763	July 1646? Mary Pilkington begs to compound on behalf of her husband, who, at the surrender of Pontefract Castle, had leave to go to Longley, where, in the Parliament's quarters, he remained. Being infirm, he sent a friend in Dec. [1645] to compound for him, but being without a particular, his petition was not accepted. In April following, a second petition was presented, with a particular. The Committee for Compounding directed the County Committee to certify if he had taken the National Covenant and Negative Oath. He then offered to take them before the County Committee, who answered that their power had terminated. Meanwhile hearing of the order of Parliament for prosecution with effect before 1 Aug. 1646, he has sent up petitioner to clear himself from delay.	112	761
	JOHN TROWT, Faversham, Kent, and MARGARET, his Wife.
PASS 124 385	July 1646? He begs to compound on Borstall House Articles, approved by Parliament 8 June last, as appears by certificate from Gen. Fairfax, but having been imprisoned in Leeds Castle, contrary to the articles, he cannot attend to prosecute his composition.	124	383
P.E. 124 387
	28 June 1650. The wife begs an act of mercy. Her husband's estate, being chiefly goods and stock, was sequestered 7 years ago, and sold for the use of the State. She farmed the remaining tenements and wharfs at 20 l. a year, for which she is now in arrears, as by decay of trade they are mostly useless; she has contracted great debts, having 7 small children, and her husband, on account of his debts, is constrained to seek his livelihood beyond seas, so that she is "become a sad spectacle of misery to her neighbours."	124	379
	28 June. Committee for Compounding reply that they would gladly relieve her, but are unable, being bound by their rules.	8	157
P.R. 14 164	17 June 1651. Susan and Margaret, orphans of Benj. Cobb, Reculver, Kent, petition that the care of them was entrusted by will to John Trowt, corn merchant of Faversham, to whom John Knowles of Herne, their father's executor, paid 400 l. for their use, of which 260 l. was in corn, which, with his other corn, was seized and sold for the State, on account of Trowt's delinquency. Beg to receive the 2 years' arrears of rent of 20 l. a year, due for the estate by Trowt's wife Margaret, and the rent in future, till the 260 l. is paid.	75	565 568

C. 32 189	26 May 1653. Order in the Committee for relief on Articles of War, on petition of John Trowt (missing) to be comprised in the Articles of Borstall House [co. Bucks],—being there at its surrender, and was to have compounded in 2 months, but he was imprisoned, and thus could not prosecute his petition presented in July 1646, and on his release, was forced to go beyond seas for security, having the Lord-General's pass; thus his rents have been detained all this time, and now his estate is in the last Act for Sale;—that he be admitted to compound on the said articles by the Committee for Compounding, and that defalcation be made from his fine of rents received since his first petition in July 1646.	226	465 391

4 Aug. 1646.	SIR JOHN STOWELL, &c.— cont.
27 Sept. 1650.	Lady Eliz. Stowell complains that having allowance of $\frac{1}{5}$ of her husband's estate for herself and many children, the demesnes of Cothelstone, co. Somerset, were allotted to her therefor, but Hen. Bovett has caused her $\frac{1}{5}$ to be extended for a pretended debt, though there are other lands of value liable thereto, and has also extended goods in the house which should be sequestered to the State, whereby he would avoid composition for the debt, if due, and leave her without maintenance. Begs an order for discharge of her $\frac{1}{5}$.	119	871
27 Sept.	The County Committee to allow no extent unless approved by the Committee for Compounding, and to summon the under-sheriff, who has extended it, before the Committee for Compounding. Also to pay Lady Stowell a clear $\frac{1}{5}$.	11	201

5 Feb. 1651.	Lady Stowell complains of obstructions in her receipts by the extent laid by Hen. Bovett, late under-sheriff, who has not appeared according to their summons, and begs to receive her rents now in the tenants' hands, and her profits in future. Noted that the County Committee are not to allow any extent, to pay the $\frac{1}{5}$, and to repay anything received since December 1649.	119	873
6 Feb.	John Ash reports that he was present at the allotting of Lady Stowell's $\frac{1}{5}$, and she was content to take Cothelstone House and estate, that she might have a house to live in, though it is only worth 320 l. a year, and her full $\frac{1}{5}$ was valued at 500 l.	119	877
12 Feb.	She is to have a full $\frac{1}{5}$ of the clear yearly revenue of her husband's estate in future, and the arrears of the lands assigned to her, any extent notwithstanding, and the County Committee are to demand from Bovett, the sheriff, what goods have been extended and taken from any of Sir John Stowell's houses since sequestration; and Mr. Brown, the sheriff's deputy, is to appear.	14	3

10 Aug. 1653.	Sir John Stowell petitions the Committee for relief on Articles of War. Was in Exeter at its surrender, and comprised in those Articles, by the 12th of which all but those who were excepted by name were to be pardoned, and compound at not more than 2 years' value; by the 21st Article no oath was to be imposed on them, except not to bear arms against or prejudice Parliament. Had a certificate from Fairfax 14 April 1646 of his being in Exeter. On 15 July 1646, came to London to compound, and undertook not to bear arms. On 24 July he presented his petition at Goldsmiths' Hall, but was refused because he would not take the Negative Oath and Covenant. On 13 Aug. was committed to the Serjeant-at-Arms, and kept prisoner in Ely House; on the 18th sent as a delinquent before the House of Commons, thence committed to Newgate for high treason, kept there 4 years, and then removed to the Tower. Whilst in Newgate he was several times indicted in the King's Bench for actions done during the wars, and had divers judgments to the value of 7,000 l. damages. In July 1650, by order	119	853

- of the High Court of Justice, he was removed to the Tower, and on 17 Dec. brought before that Court and tried for life; they did not think fit to sentence him, but referred him to Parliament. Has been in the Tower ever since. It is now 7 years since his estate was sequestered, and by increase of debts, felling of woods, spoiling of houses, and taking away the little the war has left him, has lost 30,000*l.*, and is allowed no subsistence.
- By Act of 16 July 1651, his estate was declared forfeited for treason, and has been sold. Since the Articles, neither he nor his sons, nor servants, have been in hostility, nor has he forfeited the benefit of the Articles. Begs liberty of his person, discharge of his estate, freedom from such judgments as are against the tenor of the Articles, and freedom from composition, as the 7 years' profits received from his estate far exceed the two years' value at which his fine was to be set.
- R. 25 164

	8 March 1654. Order that the Committee for Compounding show cause on Friday next why the former order of the Committee of relief on Articles of War is not observed, and the late resolution of this Committee in a like case of Mat. Coker may be produced by the petitioner.	119	883
	10 March. They reply that they are prevented compounding with him for his whole estate by the Act of Parliament confirming such parts as are sold to the purchasers, and now, by the ordinance of 10 Feb. 1654, their power is restricted to delinquents in the last Act of Sale, and to those who compound on their own discoveries.	12	609

Had his case recommended 18 months since to the Court of Articles, who certified they could not relieve him for want of power in the Haberdashers' Hall Committee to admit him to composition. It is declared by the 40th Article of this Government that all Articles of War shall be made good, and thus the Act of October 1653, confirming the sale of his estate, is made void. Begs relief, or at least liberty of person, to compound for the small portion of his estate left.	232	66

- 31 July. Order by the Committee for relief on Articles of War that the case of Sir John Monson, who pleads the Articles of Oxford—being distinct from others, because of a special promise to him by the Commissioners who treated for the Lord-General, so that their faith and that of the General and army are concerned, and both Houses having wished his relief, but this committee not having the power—that the Attorney-General, who has heard the whole debate, present the case to Parliament. 101 1035
- 24 April 1650. Att.-Gen. Prideaux to the Committee for Compounding. As you are sending orders to re-sequester the estates of compounders in arrears of their fines, pray forbear Sir John Monson's, because I am ordered to report the case to Parliament, but have not made the report, as for many months all private business has been debarred the House. 101 1037
- 26 July. Lord-General Cromwell, from Copperwith, Scotland, to Sir Hen. Vane, jun. Sir J. Monson complains of very severe proceedings by violation of the Public Faith, because his report by the Attorney-General has not been made to Parliament; I commend his petition and send an humble and earnest request to Parliament, that he may receive the benefit of his articles, and be freed from pressure, his cause having ever been thought most just by the army. 191 913

This has been for want of opportunity, not endeavour. I leave it to you whether to sequester him for non-payment of 920*l.*, the remainder of his fine,—though he asks abatement in recompense of damage contrary to the Articles of Oxford—or to settle 90*l.* out of his tithes of Owersby, co. 6 Aug. 1646. R. 194 387	RICH. POWELL, &c.— cont. his composition. Complains that though he came in on Oxford Articles, and complied with the conditions thereof, yet on some mis-information, the Parliament in July 1646 disposed of certain woods, inserted in his particular as worth 400 l. , to several uses; whereon these woods, with the rest of his goods and moveables, were seized by the sequestrators of the County Committee of Oxon, and petitioner, as executrix, is sued for many debts. Begs restitution.
	16 Nov. 1649. Referred to the Committee at Goldsmiths' Hall	- 194	397
	14 Dec. They certify that no part of the fine is paid	- 6	248
	1 June 1650. On report of the County Committee that the estate is in question, and part was given by Parliament, 15 Aug. 1646, to the town and church of Banbury, the County Committee are ordered to secure it till the parties make good their title.	251	100
	12 June. The Committee for relief on Articles of War, finding that the goods aforesaid, although of far greater value, were sold by the authority of the late County Committee of Oxon to Matthew Appletree of London, and that there remains in his hands as purchaser 9 l. 1 l. 10 d. , adjudge the restitution of such goods as remain in specie in the house of Richard Powell to his widow, and the County Committee are to be answerable to her for the rest of the said goods.	110	527 549
	23 Aug. Mrs. Powell complains that the foregoing order is without effect. According to the late Act concerning statutes, mortgages, and extents, those in possession are allowed to compound for them. Her husband was seized of an estate in fee of the tithes of Whateley, and 3½ yard-lands there, with cottages, worth 40 l. a year, extended by John Milton for a debt of 300 l. , due 18 years since. It is also charged by deed 10 January, 7 Charles, for payment of 400 l. to Mr. Ashworth, and is liable for her thirds, and for debts on bonds amounting to 1,200 l. Begs consideration of these charges, and of her losses through the wrong settlement of her husband's personal estate. Noted, referred to Brereton.	110	542
	23 Aug. John Pye begs allowance of his title as detailed to a mortgage for 1,400 l. by Rich. Powell to Sir Rob. Pye, on Forest Hill Manor, co. Oxon, sequestered since his possession thereof for Powell's delinquency.	109	521
P.R. 11 87 P.E. 109 523	23 Aug. John Milton allowed to compound for an extent on Rich. Powell's estate.	11	92
P.E. 101 929	25 Feb. 1651. JOHN MILTON complains that since his petition in the middle of August last [missing] to compound for an extent on the lands in Whateley, co. Oxon, belonging to Rich. Powell, late of Forest Hill, which was referred, order has been given forbidding his tenants to pay him rent. Having had important business ever since, by order of the Council of State, has had no time to proceed in perfecting his composition. Begs that the order to sequester may be revoked, and that the composition may be moderated, in regard that Mrs. Powell has her cause depending before the Committee for relief on Articles of War, who have adjudged her satisfaction for the seizure and sale of her personal estate; but by reason of the expiration of that Court, she has received no satisfaction. She has, besides, her thirds out of that land; this was not considered when her husband followed his composition, nor the taxes, free quartering, and finding of arms, which have been very great, and are likely to be greater. Noted in Milton's hand, "I doe swear that this debt for w ^{ch} I am to compound according to my petition is a true and real debt, as will appear upon record.—John Milton."	101	925

Brought a dowry of 3,000 l. to her husband, but through the carelessness of her friends, and relying on her husband's good will, she had no jointure made her, and now has nothing left for the maintenance of herself and eight children, who have sustained a loss of 1,000 l. in their personal estate at the hands of the County Committee, contrary to Oxford Articles.	110	594

	16 July.	Case stated, that "by the law she might recover her thirds, but she is so extreme poor she hath not wherewithal to prosecute, and besides, Mr. Milton is a harsh and chollericke man, and married Mrs. Powell's daughter, who would be undone if any such course were taken ag ^t him by Mrs. Powell, he having turned away his wife heretofore for a long space upon some other occasion ('a small occasion' struck out). This note ensuing Mr. Milton writ, whereof this is a copy. 'Although I have compounded for my extent, and shalbe so much the longer in receiving my debt, yet at the request of Mrs. Powell, in regard of her p ^s ent necessitys, I am contented, as far as belongs to my consent, to allow her the third of what I receive from y ^e estate, if the Commissioners shall so order it y ^e what I allow her may not be reckoned upon my accompt.'" Noted, "16 July 1651. The estate is wholly extended, and a saving as to the 3rd prayed but not granted. We cannot therefore allow her thirds to petitioner."	110	595

	20 Oct. 1652.	Anne Powell, and Richard, her son, petition the Committee for relief on Articles of War. Anne petitioned the former Committee for relief on Articles, who allowed her claim as above, but she could not obtain obedience to their order. Her husband's personal estate was sequestered 17 June 1646 by the County Committee of Oxon, sitting at Woodstock, viz., Sir Wm. Cobb, Thos. Appletree, Rob. Barber, deceased, and Hen. Gooding, and their agents inventoried and sold the goods, household stuff, &c., to Matthew Appletree for 335 l. , within a few days after the granting of Oxford Articles. By ordinance of Parliament, 15 July 1646, the timber of Rich. Powell, value 400 l. , was bestowed on the Banbury inhabitants, for repair of their church, vicarage, and gaol, the remainder to be disposed of by those M.Ps. who were of the County Committee of Oxon to the well-affected in Banbury, for rebuilding their houses. Part of the said timber was sold for 110 l. , at 18 s. a ton.	110	525

Richard Powell dying before perfecting his composition, by reason of the violation of their Oxford Articles they could not prosecute it. Pray that they may have the full benefit of the said Articles; that such goods as remain in specie in or about Richard Powell's house may be delivered to them; that Matthew Appletree be required to pay them the 91*l.* 11*s.* 10*d.* as ordered; that the fine aforesaid be reduced, and that the sequestration be discharged.

	minister has no vicarage or living except at pleasure of the proprietor, and Joan Strode now holds it for some years, and has compounded for her delinquency, hoping to be free from any but voluntary charge towards the minister. As 48 s .
	a month and 30 l . a year was ordered for the minister for the present, but not settled as a perpetuity, they beg that these

REC. 119 810	for neglecting to sue out her pardon revoked.
	28 Feb. 1648. Joan Strode petitions that having compounded, she 119 810 paid 220 l . to the County Commissioners of Somerset for her goods seized, and has since paid 175 l . more for composition ; that the suing out of her pardon was delayed because her son's name was not in the report made to Parliament, yet six weeks after the concurrence of the Lords to her ordinance, she was again sequestered without any notice, her goods seized by the County Commissioners, and she obliged to pay 86 l . to redeem them, and give a bond for 86 l . more, all for not suing out her pardon. Begg restoration of the 86 l . and her bond.
	28 Feb. A letter to be written to the County Commissioners that 4 184 as they did not give the 14 days' notice required, restitution should be made, as she is now suing out her pardon.
	10 March. Committee for Compounding complain that the County 119 753 Commissioners neglect their repeated orders, and have leased her estate for a year to Capt. Jas. Hooper, who threatens to cut down her woods and prevent her tillage. This is acting with great rigour to the widow. They are to return the 86 l ., deliver up the bond, and settle her in quiet possession, the lease to Hooper notwithstanding, or their conduct will be reported to the House.
L.C.C. 119 769	16 May. Joan Strode complains that, this order notwithstanding, 119 749
803	the County Commissioners have impounded her cattle, broken open her doors, taken away four dozen doves, and threaten her for not giving up the house to them. Begg that the offenders

	22 Dec. 1646. Mr. Ash to report the particular which concerns the fee Lord Lindsey has out of the Petty Bag, as High Chamberlain of England, worth 200 l. a year, taken away by the dissolution of the Court of Wards.	193	191
R. 193 183	23 Dec. Order that he is to be tenant of Havering Park -	3	340
	5 Jan. 1647. His goods seized since the surrender of Oxford to be restored to him.	3 232	362 188
	1647? The inhabitants of Morton, co. Lincoln, beg that the augmentation of 50 l. a year, formerly granted by the Committee for Scandalous Ministers out of the impropriation of Edenham, then sequestered for the Earl of Lindsey's delinquency, may be settled on the minister at Morton. There has not been a powerful preacher of God's word there time out of mind. They groaned for 30 years under one Humphrey Boston, vicar, who by the said Committee was worthily ejected. Conington, who was placed in his stead, after one year's service, was forced to leave for want of means. John White, who took his place, removed on the withdrawal of the said augmentation at the Earl's composition. They are a numerous people, consisting of 200 families. [60 signatures.]	193	204
	20 March. The Earl is allowed 1,500 l. for impropriations in part of his first payment, 100 l. is mitigated on review, and on paying 580 l. to make up the moiety of his fine, he is to have letters of suspension.	4	44
c. 99 13	21 April 1648. He begs allowance of the deed of 10 Car., whereby provision was made for portions and annuities of the late Earl's youngerchildren, and for Elizabeth, Countess Dowager of Lindsey, to have 100 l. a year out of manors in co. Lincoln in case she enjoyed not the house in Havering Park, Essex. The County Committee of Essex sequestered the said house and park, and the Countess resorted to the County Committee of of Lincoln, who not only refused her her 100 l. a year, but on pretence that 310 l. is received by the ladies, her daughters, above their maintenance, threaten to levy it on the tenants.	100	17
	21 April. County Committee of Lincoln ordered not to meddle with the Earl's tenants for the said amount, which appears to the Committee for Compounding to have been raised by Sir Wm. Armyne as feoffee in trust.	4	199
P.E. 193 197	29 May 1649. The Earl moves to add to his former particular certain fen lands, the title to which is now in question before a Committee of Parliament, and to receive no prejudice by the Act of 21 March 1649.	193	197
	4 July. Committee for Compounding have not power to give relief on his complaint to the Parliament and the General, and referred to the Committee for Compounding.	6	146
	21 Dec. Petitions the Committee for relief on Articles of War, having surrendered on Oxford Articles, to be admitted to compound for 200 l. a year issuing out of the livery in the Petty Bag Office, and a pension of 1,000 l. a year charged on the revenue of the Court of Wards, together with arrears, or to have fitting relief. Has not had the arrears for the said offices for seven years.	193	151
	21 Dec. The Committee for Compounding to certify why they refused to admit him to compound.
	22 Jan. 1650. They certify that they did not conceive that it was the intention of Parliament that any persons should compound for things of that nature, and further that no order was given by Parliament for payment thereof.	7	4

NOTE 30 111	4 Feb. 1651.	Lord Mohun’s estate discharged on full payment of fine.	12 111	232 194
L.C.C. 101 589 254 55	5 Feb.	Order that if it appear that Lord Mohun has paid his fine for the said estate, for which he also had a saving, Carey and Roscarrock are to have a saving to compound for the premises till they recover them; in case Lord Mohun has not paid his fine, the saving to them is to be for 3 weeks.	12 115
	19 Feb.	Lord Mohun to have the lands for which he has compounded; the tenant of one-third part of the premises, if he had a lease before Lord Mohun’s composition, is to enjoy the same as tenant to his lordship.	12 133
L. 101 593 L.C.C. 255 11	27 Feb.	Lord Mohun to have the same possession of the lands he has compounded for that the Commonwealth had right to by the sequestration, and to receive the arrears of rent in the tenants’ hands.	12 138	101 553
L.C.C. 73 175	30 April.	Sir Henry Carey, of Bickleigh, Devon, Sir Jas. Smith, of Trewen, and Charles Roscarrock, of Trevena, Cornwall, who married Dorothy, Bridget, and Margaret, daughters of Sir Reginald Mohun by his second wife, beg that no possession be given to Lord Mohun of the manors of Fawton, Trewnard, St. Daye, &c., and the demesnes of Trevena, co. Cornwall, settled by Sir Reginald Mohun, on the marriage of Reginald, his son by his second wife, on the said Reginald and his heirs, who died without issue, whereby the manors descended to his sisters of the whole blood, wives of petitioners, who accordingly entered thereon, but were disturbed by Warwick, Lord Mohun, son of John, Lord Mohun, son of the said Sir Reginald by his first wife. On their seeking to recover 1,000 l. damages done them by Lord Mohun, he prosecuted them in the House of Lords for contempt against his peerage; this charge the Lords adjudged causeless. He then pleaded actions at law, that he was a peer and could not be sued, delaying petitioners in their rights till the privilege of peers was taken away. Although Carey and Roscarrock compounded for their interests in the manors of Fawton and demesnes of Trevena, and prayed a saving to compound for the residue claimed by them, and have since petitioned to compound for the same, according to the votes of 20 October last; and although $\frac{1}{3}$ of the lands belonging to Sir Jas. Smith was never liable to sequestration, yet Lord Mohun has now compounded for all, and endeavours to gain possession thereof. Beg that Carey and Roscarrock may enjoy the benefit of their former composition, and be admitted to compound for such part of the said manors as they have not compounded for, that both parties may try their title at law.	73 173
	30 April.	None of petitioners to be dispossessed of lands come to them in right of their wives; the cause to be heard on all sides in 3 weeks.	14 102
	27 May.	On certificate of the County Committee of Cornwall, dated 12 Feb. 1651, that the possession of the estate in question was in Sir James Smith, Sir Henry Carey, and Charles Roscarrock for more than two years past, order that Carey and Roscarrock be admitted to compound for it, no judgment being given as to the possession thereof, only that no alteration be made therein; the tenants to retain the rents, or deposit them at Goldsmiths’ Hall till the suit at law between the said parties is determined.	14 136	213 725
c. 96 819 P.E. 189 368 213 729	3 June.	Roscarrock and Carey beg that a fine may be set on their estate held in right of their wives, for which they had savings to compound when the title was determined.	213 728

	5 Feb. 1648. Fairfax writes recommending his case	-	-	191 655
R. 191 653	14 Feb. Sir Thomas begs to answer the letter to the County Committee of Somerset of 29 Jan. 1648, about the estate of himself and his son, John. They paid their fine for all the estate they then had, 15 Dec. 1646. As for the manor of West Quantox-head, a verdict and judgment at law has lately passed in an ejection on a lease made to George Wadman by John Mallet, who had a lease thereof for seven years from petitioner, and had the like lease also made to him from Michael Mallet, his uncle, which three leases had special clauses of revocation, and were made only for the trial of the title. Knows not whether the verdict passed on his or on his uncle's title, nor has he obtained possession. Begs that he may be heard by counsel in behalf of his non-liability to compound further.			191 645

-623 the father of Ralph Gore. Wrenham died Jan. 1650, when petitioners, having their debt, principal, and interest, amounting to 2,000*l.*, entered upon the land, which the County Committee have sequestered as the estate of the Duke of Richmond, in whose possession it never was. In Feb. 1652, the County Committee sequestered the third of the said 500 acres, belonging to John Cloake, by marriage with Mary, relict of Wrenham, who brought him 2,000*l.* portion, and has no jointure.

at 64*l.* rent to a farm and 160 acres in Sutton Marsh, Lincoln, sequestered for delinquency of the Duke of Richmond, having a larger farm in the marsh, contracted with petitioner for this farm, but refuses to fulfil his contract, and the house stands empty, while he has no habitation. As no former tenant can dispose of a sequestered estate without leave; as petitioner will give security for the rent; and as he has prosecuted several of the Duke's lands in the marsh to sequestration without a penny reward, begs that the County Commissioners may give him possession; and if it is already let, grant him a lease from Michaelmas next.

examine the truth, and particularly if Reeks consented to part with the farm, and certify.

- INT. } 162 205 July. Petition of Oldisworth and his participants. Sutton Marsh, 108 830
& D. } 233 being duchy lands and overflowed by the sea, was granted by L. 113 1019 King Charles in fee farm to Nicholas Street, under which grant petitioners claim, the lands being embanked and improved at the cost of 30,000*l.*; after this the Duke of Richmond unlawfully procured an old prerogative patent, damned by decree in a court of justice to be surrendered, and then passed a patent from the late King of the marsh to himself, and without evicting petitioner by suit at law, extorted rents from his tenants by virtue of letters from the then Lord Treasurer,
Dr. [Wm.] Juxon, but never made a lease to any tenant.
The tenants accounted in 1641 with petitioner for the rents due from 1638 to 1641, had allowance of the amounts surrepted by the said Duke, and took leases from petitioner for 21 years of all the said marsh at 8*s.* the acre. In 1646 the Duke compounded for his estate, craving a saving for the marsh, notwithstanding which he took no steps to clear this title, but informed the Committee for co. Lincoln by Sir Gervase Scrope, that the marsh was his, and obtained a seizure of 4,000 acres, by which the Committee for Compounding intended only that the rents should be stayed in the tenants' hands. Begs discharge on the Act of Pardon, urging that his title is the same as that of Leman and others, who have received a discharge of sequestration on the 500 acres they claimed.

infancy of the sequestration, and also for some buildings. Complain that the County Commissioners call for all old suspensions which they formerly held fit to be allowed. The assessments by the Commissioners of Sewers were for making and repairing drains, sluices, and an outfall for the country through the marsh, from which the petitioners issue not one spoonful of water, and the banks are not within the survey of the Sessions of Sewers, but were always made and repaired by the owners of the land. Joseph Peters, one of the petitioners, paid $\frac{1}{2}$ year's rent to Lord Dacre before he had notice of the sequestration, and was obliged to pay it over again to County Committee. Gartrit Snow, widow, sits at 64*l.* a year rent, yet has no dwelling-house, only a barn on the premises, and she and James Harriman, another of the petitioners, have been obliged to set up small habitations. DEBORAH, Widow of JOHN FRANKLIN, M.P., Marlborough, Wilts.

Order in Parliament to the Committee of the West to provide her 4*l*. weekly till they can make further provision for her maintenance, in consideration of her great losses, and of the good affections of John Franklin to the cause of liberty and religion maintained by the Parliament. 86 483

7 May 1649. On Col. Ludlow's report from the said Committee that they ordered the County Committee of Wilts to pay her 4*l*. a week out of the estates of Sir Edward Hyde and Mr. Bodenham of Ramsbury, Parliament orders the said County Committee to pay her the arrears forthwith from the profits of the said estates, if sufficient; if not, from those of other sequestered estates. 86 485

CASE 86 422

23 Feb. 1650. She complains that the arrears are yet unpaid, and begs order for receiving the rents assigned her by Parliament order. Her husband died a prisoner at Oxford for defending liberty and religion, and her son, Major Franklin, was slain in the Parliament's service at the storming of Lincoln, but the late Act of 25 Jan. 1650, ordering the payments from delinquents' estates to be sent to Guildhall, prevents petitions from being filed and reported. 86 420

19 Nov. 1651. She petitions Parliament. Her husband was by Parliament commanded to go and garrison Marlborough, which he did, holding it till the enemy took it by force, and carried 86 490

Of the sums ordered her by Parliament, has only received 98*l.*, a great part of which she has expended in the business, and cannot expect payment of the 4*l.* a week, because of the Act of 25 Jan. 1650, ordering all moneys to be brought into Goldsmiths' Hall. Nov. ? 1646.		SIR ANDREW KNYVETON, Bradley, Co. Derby, and SIR JOHN FITZHERBERT.
		Both petition the Committee for both Kingdoms for a report to both Houses for discharge of their sequestration. At the treaty touching the surrender of Tutbury Castle, they demanded of Sir Wm. Brereton, Bart., and the other Parliament Commissioners, that their estates should not be sequestered. The Commissioners being unable to insert this stipulation in the Articles for the surrender of the Castle, promised them to mediate with the Committee for both Kingdoms to obtain the same, whereupon they surrendered, which was of more benefit to the country than the value of their fines. The Parliament Commissioners wrote to the said Committee, and obtained a reply from Sir John Cooke assenting thereto, yet their estates are under sequestration.	97	355
P.R.	3 330	15 Dec. 1646. Sir Andrew Knyveton, rather than attend the Committee of both Kingdoms, begs to be admitted to his composition, and to have a licence to stay in London to prosecute it. Was in arms against Parliament. Has long attended the aforesaid Committee, but cannot get a hearing.	97	353
		7 Feb. 1648. Sir John Fitzherbert begs leave to come to London with two witnesses. Has long attended the Committee of both Kingdoms, and the Committee of Complaints have declared their opinion that, in pursuance of the agreement made at the surrender of Tutbury Castle, his sequestration ought to be discharged, and that his case should be reported to the Houses; but by reason of the weighty affairs of the public, it is yet unreported, and he suffers greatly in his estate, and must compound for it if not discharged.	86	974

CLAIMANT ON THE ESTATE.

19 July 1650. FRANCIS GREENWAY, of Oxford, petitions that having 3 years ago bought the remainder of a lease for 15 years of a house in Oxford, held of University College, of Matthew Harrison, then under sequestration for delinquency, Harrison promised with the purchase money to free it from sequestration. He compounded, paid a moiety of his fine, and entered into bond for payment of the rest. The second payment was left in the hands of one Howse, an officer of this Committee, to pay, but both having failed to pay, petitioner's estate in the house is likely to be sequestered, it being set out at 22*l*. 10*s*., and the rest of the estate at 114*l*. Has spent 390*l*. on renewal of the lease, and in repairs 390*l*. As he hopes to prove that the rest of Harrison's estate was made over to Howse to pay the second moiety, he begs that the bond may be put in suit, or that the rest of the estate sold since he bought the house may pay proportionably. Noted, the treasurer to certify whether any bond were given for the second payment, meanwhile the County Committee to let the house to petitioner at the utmost improved value. 89 145

9 Aug. 1650. Begg that he paying the moiety for his house, it may be cleared; or that upon payment of the moiety for the whole estate compounded for, the estate may be sequestered till he is repaid with interest. 89 147

9 Aug. Order that if he pay in the proportion of the latter moiety of the fine, with interest due for the said house, the sequestration be discharged. 11 72

The County Commissioners are also to inquire whether Jas. CALENDARS OF STATE PAPERS, &c.

[IMPERIAL 8vo., boards. Price 15s. each Volume or Part.]

As far back as the year 1800, a Committee of the House of Commons recommended that Indexes and Calendars should be made to the Public Records, and thirty-six years afterwards another Committee of the House of Commons reiterated that recommendation in more forcible words; but it was not until the incorporation of the State Paper Office with the Public Record Office that the Master of the Rolls found himself in a position to take the necessary steps for carrying out the wishes of the House of Commons.

On 7 December 1855, he stated to the Lords of the Treasury that although "the Records, State Papers, and Documents in his charge constitute the most complete and perfect series of their kind in the civilized world," and although "they are of the greatest value in a historical and constitutional point of view, yet they are comparatively useless to the public, from the want of proper Calendars and Indexes." Acting upon the recommendations of the Committees of the House of Commons above referred to, he suggested to the Lords of the Treasury that to effect the object he had in view it would be necessary for him to employ a few Persons fully qualified to perform the work which he contemplated.

Their Lordships assented to the necessity of having Calendars prepared and printed, and empowered the Master of the Rolls to take such steps as might be necessary for this purpose.

THE CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.

[ROYAL 8vo. Price 10s. each Volume or Part.]

On 25 July 1822, the House of Commons presented an address to the Crown, stating that the editions of the works of our ancient historians were inconvenient and defective; that many of their writings still remained in manuscript, and, in some cases, in a single copy only. They added, "that an uniform and convenient edition of the whole, published under His Majesty's royal sanction, would be an undertaking honourable to His Majesty's reign, and conducive to the advancement of historical and constitutional knowledge; that the House therefore humbly besought His Majesty, that He would be graciously pleased to give such directions as His Majesty, in His wisdom, might think fit, for the publication of a complete edition of the ancient historians of this realm, and assured His Majesty that whatever expense might be necessary for this purpose would be made good."

The Master of the Rolls, being very desirous that effect should be given to the resolution of the House of Commons, submitted to Her Majesty's Treasury in 1857 a plan for the publication of the ancient chronicles and memorials of the United Kingdom, and it was adopted accordingly. In selecting these works, it was considered right, in the first instance, to give preference to those of which the manuscripts were unique, or the materials of which would help to fill up blanks in English history for which no satisfactory and authentic information hitherto existed in any accessible form. One great object the Master of the Rolls had in view was to form a corpus historicum within reasonable limits, and which should be as complete as possible.

Of the Chronicles and Memorials, the following volumes have been published. They embrace the period from the earliest time of British history down to the end of the reign of Henry VII.

1. THE CHRONICLE OF ENGLAND, by JOHN CAPGRAVE. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

Capgrave was prior of Lynn, in Norfolk, and provincial of the order of the Friars Hermits of England shortly before the year 1464. His Chronicle extends from the creation of the world to the year 1417. As a record of the language spoken in Norfolk (being written in English), it is of considerable value.

2. CHRONICON MONASTERII DE ABINGDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1858.

This Chronicle traces the history of the monastery from its foundation by King Ina of Wessex, to the reign of Richard I., shortly after which period the present narrative was drawn up by an inmate of the establishment. The author had access to the title-deeds of the house; and incorporates into his history various charters of the Saxon kings, of great importance as illustrating not only the history of the locality but that of the kingdom.

3. LIVES OF EDWARD THE CONFESSOR. I.—La Estoire de Seint Aedward le Rei II.—Vita Beati Edvardi Regis et Confessoris. III.—Vita Æduuardi Regis qui apud Westmonasterium requiescit. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1858.

The first is a poem in Norman French, addressed to Alianor, Queen of Henry III., probably written in 1245. Nothing is known of the author. The second is an anonymous poem, written between 1440 and 1450, by command of Henry VI. It does not throw any new light on the reign of Edward the Confessor, but is valuable as a specimen of the Latin poetry of the time. The third, also by an anonymous author, was apparently written for Queen Edith, between 1066 and 1074. It notices many facts not found in other writers.

4. MONUMENTA FRANCISCANA. Vol. I.—Thomas de Eccleston de Adventu Fratrum Minorum in Angliam. Adæ de Marisco Epistolæ. Registrum Fratrum Minorum Londoniæ. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. Vol. II.—De Adventu

Minorum; re-edited, with additions. Chronicle of the Grey Friars. The ancient English version of the Rule of St. Francis. Abbreviatio Statutorum, 1451, &c. Edited by RICHARD HOWLETT, Barrister-at-Law. 1858, 1882.

The first volume contains original materials for the history of the settlement of the order of St. Francis in England, the letters of Adam de Marisco, and other papers connected with the foundation and diffusion of this great body. The second volume contains materials found since the first volume was published.

5. FASCICULI ZIZANIORUM MAGISTRI JOHANNIS WYCLIF CUM TRITICO. Ascribed to THOMAS NETTER, of WALDEN, Provincial of the Carmelite Order in England, and Confessor to King Henry the Fifth. Edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, M.A., Tutor and late Fellow of Wadham College, Oxford. 1858.

This work derives its principal value from being the only contemporaneous account of the rise of the Lollards.

6. THE BUIK OF THE CRONICLIS OF SCOTLAND; or, A Metrical Version of the History of Hector Boece; by WILLIAM STEWART. Vols. I.-III. Edited by W. B. TURNBULL, Barrister-at-Law. 1858.

This is a metrical translation of a Latin Prose Chronicle, written in the first half of the 16th century. The narrative begins with the earliest legends and ends with the death of James I. of Scotland, and the "evil ending of the traitors that slew him." Strict accuracy of statement is not to be looked for; but the stories of the colonization of Spain, Ireland, and Scotland are interesting; and the chronicle reflects the manners, sentiments, and character of the age in which it was composed. The peculiarities of the Scottish dialect are well illustrated in this version.

7. JOHANNIS CAPGRAVE LIBER DE ILLUSTRIBUS HENRICIS. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

This work is dedicated to Henry VI. of England, who appears to have been, in the author's estimation, the greatest of all the Henries. The first part relates only to the history of the Empire from the election of Henry I. the Fowler, to the end of the reign of the Emperor Henry VI. The second part is devoted to English history, from the accession of Henry I. in 1100, to 1446, which was the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Henry VI. The third part contains the lives of illustrious men who have borne the name of Henry in various parts of the world. Capgrave was born in 1393, and lived during the Wars of the Roses, for which period his work is of some value.

8. HISTORIA MONASTERII S. AUGUSTINI CANTUARIENSIS, by THOMAS OF ELMHAM, formerly Monk and Treasurer of that Foundation. Edited by CHARLES HARDWICK, M.A., Fellow of St. Catharine's Hall, and Christian Advocate in the University of Cambridge. 1858.

This history extends from the arrival of St. Augustine in Kent until 1191. Prefixed is a chronology as far as 1418, which shows in outline what was to have been the character of the work when completed. The author was connected with Norfolk, and most probably with Elmham.

9. EULOGIUM (HISTORIARUM SIVE TEMPORIS): Chronicon ab Orbe condito usque ad Annum Domini 1366; a Monacho quodam Malmesbiriensi exaratum. Vols. I., II., and III. Edited by F. S. HAYDON, B.A. 1858-1863.

This is a Latin Chronicle extending from the Creation to the latter part of the reign of Edward III., and written by a monk of the Abbey of Malmesbury, in Wiltshire, about the year 1367. A continuation, carrying the history of England down to the year 1413, was added in the first half of the fifteenth century by an author whose name is not known.

10. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE SEVENTH: Bernardi Andreae Tholosatis Vita Regis Henrici Septimi; necnon alia quædam ad eundem Regem spectantia. Edited by JAMES GAIRDNER. 1858.

The contents of this volume are—(1) a life of Henry VII., by his poet laureate and historiographer, Bernard André, of Toulouse, with some compositions in verse, of which he is supposed to have been the author; (2) the journals of Roger Machado during certain embassies on which he was sent by Henry VII. to Spain and Brittany, the first of which had reference to the marriage of the King's son, Arthur, with Catharine of Arragon; (3) two curious reports by envoys sent to Spain in 1505 touching the succession to the Crown of Castile, and a project of marriage between Henry VII. and the Queen of Naples; and (4) an account of Philip of Castile's reception in England in 1506. Other documents of interest are given in an appendix.

11. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE FIFTH. I.—Vita Henrici Quinti, Roberto Redmanno auctore. II.—Versus Rhythmici in laudem Regis Henrici Quinti. III.—Elmhami Liber Metricus de Henrico V. Edited by CHARLES A. COLE. 1858.

This volume contains three treatises which more or less illustrate the history of the reign of Henry V., viz.: A life by Robert Redman; a Metrical Chronicle by Thomas Elmham, prior of Lenton, a contemporary author; Versus Rhythmici, written apparently by a monk of Westminster Abbey, who was also a contemporary of Henry V.

12. MUNIMENTA GILDHALLÆ LONDONIENSIS; Liber Albus, Liber Custumarum, et Liber Horn, in archivis Gildhallæ asservati. Vol. I., Liber Albus. Vol. II. (in Two Parts), Liber Custumarum. Vol. III., Translation of the Anglo-Norman Passages in Liber Albus, Glossaries, Appendices, and Index. Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1859-1862.

The manuscript of the Liber Albus, compiled by John Carpenter, Common Clerk of the City of London in the year 1419, gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of that City in the 12th, 13th, 14th, and early part of the 15th centuries. The Liber Custumarum was compiled probably by various hands in the early part of the 14th century during the reign of Edward II. It also gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of the City of London in the 12th, 13th, and early part of the 14th centuries.

13. CHRONICA JOHANNIS DE OXENEDES. Edited by Sir HENRY ELLIS, K.H. 1859.

Although this Chronicle tells of the arrival of Hengist and Horsa in England in 449, yet it substantially begins with the reign of King Alfred, and comes down to 1292, where it ends abruptly. The history is particularly valuable for notices of events in the eastern portions of the Kingdom.

14. A COLLECTION OF POLITICAL POEMS AND SONGS RELATING TO ENGLISH HISTORY, FROM THE ACCESSION OF EDWARD III. TO THE REIGN OF HENRY VIII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1859-1861.

These Poems are perhaps the most interesting of all the historical writings of the period, though they cannot be relied on for accuracy of statement. They are various in character; some are upon religious subjects, some may be called satires, and some give no more than a court scandal; but as a whole they present a very fair picture of society, and of the relations of the different classes to one another. The songs in old English are of considerable value to the philologist.

15. The "OPUS TERTIUM," "OPUS MINUS," &c., of ROGER BACON. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. 1859.

This is the celebrated treatise—never before printed—so frequently referred to by the great philosopher in his works. It contains the fullest details we possess of the life and labours of Roger Bacon: also a fragment by the same author, supposed to be unique, the "Compendium Studii Theologiæ."

16. BARTHOLOMÆI DE COTTON, MONACHI NORWICENSIS, HISTORIA ANGLICANA; 449-1298: necnon ejusdem Liber de Achiepiscopis et Episcopis Angliæ. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1859.

The author, a monk of Norwich, has here given us a Chronicle of England from the arrival of the Saxons in 449 to the year 1298, in or about which year it appears that he died. The latter portion of this history is of great value, as the writer was contemporary with the events which he records.

17. BRUT Y TYWYSOGION; or, The Chronicle of the Princes of Wales. Edited by the Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

This work, also known as "The Chronicle of the Princes of Wales," has been attributed to Caradoc of Llancarvan, who flourished about the middle of the twelfth century. It is written in the ancient Welsh language, begins with the abdication and death of Caedwala at Rome, in the year 681, and continues the history down to the subjugation of Wales by Edward I., about the year 1282.

18. A COLLECTION OF ROYAL AND HISTORICAL LETTERS DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY IV. 1399-1404. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A., of Exeter College, Oxford. 1860.

19. THE REPRESSOR OF OVER MUCH BLAMING OF THE CLERGY. By REGINALD PECOCK, sometime Bishop of Chichester. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1860.

The "Repressor" may be considered the earliest piece of good theological disquisition of which our English prose literature can boast. The author was born about the end of the fourteenth century, consecrated Bishop of St. Asaph in the year 1444, and translated to the see of Chichester in 1450. While Bishop of St. Asaph, he zealously defended his brother prelates from the attacks of those who censured the bishops for their neglect of duty. Pecock took up a position midway between that of the Roman Church and that of the modern Anglican Church; but his work is interesting chiefly because it gives a full account of the views of the Lollards and of the arguments by which they were supported. Apart from religious matters, the light thrown upon contemporaneous history is very small, but the "Repressor" has great value for the philologist.

20. ANNALES CAMBRIÆ. Edited by the Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

These annals, which are in Latin, commence in 447, and come down to 1288. The earlier portion appears to be taken from an Irish Chronicle used by Tigernach, and by the compiler of the Annals of Ulster. The annals were probably written at St. Davids, by Blegewryd, Archdeacon of Llandaff, the most learned man in his day in all Cymru.

21. THE WORKS OF GIRALDUS CAMBRENSIS. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. Vols. V.-VII. Edited by the Rev. JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. 1861-1877.

These volumes contain the historical works of Gerald du Barry, who lived in the reigns of Henry II., Richard I., and John, and attempted to re-establish the independence of Wales by restoring the see of St. Davids to its ancient primacy. His works are of a very miscellaneous nature, both in prose and verse, and are remarkable chiefly for the racy and original anecdotes which they contain relating to contemporaries. He is the only Welsh writer of any importance who has contributed so much to the mediæval literature of this country, or assumed, in consequence of his nationality, so free and independent a tone. His frequent travels in Italy, in France, in Ireland, and in Wales, gave him opportunities for observation which did not generally fall to the lot of mediæval writers in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, and of these observations Giraldus has made due use.

The Topographia Hibernica (in Vol. V.) is the result of Giraldus' two visits to Ireland, the first in 1183, the second in 1185-6, when he accompanied Prince John into that country. A very interesting portion of this treatise is devoted to the animals of Ireland. It shows that he was a very accurate and acute observer, and his descriptions are given in a way that a scientific naturalist of the present day could hardly improve upon. The Expugnatio Hibernica was written about 1188 and may be regarded rather as a great epic than a sober relation of acts occurring in his own days. Vol. VI. contains the Itinerarium Cambriæ et Descriptio Cambriæ: and Vol. VII., the lives of S. Remigius and S. Hugh.

22. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE WARS OF THE ENGLISH IN FRANCE DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY THE SIXTH, KING OF ENGLAND. Vol. I., and Vol. II. (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1861-1864.

These letters and papers are derived chiefly from originals or contemporary copies extant in the Bibliothèque Impériale, and the Dépôt des Archives, in Paris.

23. THE ANGLO-SAXON CHRONICLE, ACCORDING TO THE SEVERAL ORIGINAL AUTHORITIES. Vol. I., Original Texts. Vol. II., Translation. Edited and translated by BENJAMIN THORPE, Member of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Munich, and of the Society of Netherlandish Literature at Leyden. 1861.

This chronicle, extending from the earliest history of Britain to 1154, is justly the boast of England; no other nation can produce any history, written in its own vernacular, at all approaching it, in antiquity, truthfulness, or extent, the historical books of the Bible alone excepted. There are at present six independent manuscripts of the Saxon Chronicle, ending in different years, and written in different parts of the country. In this edition, the text of each manuscript is printed in columns on the same page, so that the student may see at a glance the various changes which occur in orthography, whether arising from locality or age.

24. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGNS OF RICHARD III. AND HENRY VII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by JAMES GAIRDNER. 1861-1863.

The papers are derived from the MSS. in Public Record Office, the British Museum, and other repositories. The period to which they refer is unusually destitute of chronicles and other sources of historical information, so that the light obtained from them is of special importance. The principal contents of the volumes are some diplomatic Papers of Richard III.; correspondence between Henry VII. and Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain; documents relating to Edmund de la Pole Earl of Suffolk; and a portion of the correspondence of James IV. of Scotland.

25. LETTERS OF BISHOP GROSSETESTE. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1861.

The Letters of Robert Grosseteste range in date from about 1210 to 1253, and relate to various matters connected not only with the political history of England during the reign of Henry III. but with its ecclesiastical condition. They refer especially to the diocese of Lincoln, of which Grosseteste was bishop.

26. DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE OF MANUSCRIPTS RELATING TO THE HISTORY OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND. Vol. I. (in Two Parts); Anterior to the Norman Invasion. Vol. II.; 1066-1200. Vol. III.; 1200-1327. By Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1862-1871.

The object of this work is to publish notices of all known sources of British history, both printed and unprinted, in one continued sequence. The materials, when historical (as distinguished from biographical), are arranged under the year in which the latest event is recorded in the chronicle or history, and not under the period in which its author, real or supposed, flourished. Biographies are enumerated under the year in which the person commemorated died, and not under the year in which the life was written. A brief analysis of each work has been added when deserving it, in which original portions are distinguished from mere compilations. A biographical sketch of the author of each piece has been added, and a brief notice of such British authors as have written on historical subjects.

27. ROYAL AND OTHER HISTORICAL LETTERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGN OF HENRY III. Vol. I., 1216-1235. Vol. II., 1236-1272. Selected and edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, D.D., Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History, and Canon of Christ Church, Oxford. 1862-1866.

The letters contained in these volumes are derived chiefly from the ancient correspondence in the Public Record Office. They illustrate the political history of England during the growth of its liberties, and throw considerable light upon the personal history of Simon de Montfort. The affairs of France form the subject of many of them, especially in regard to the province of Gascony.

28. CHRONICA MONASTERII S. ALBANI.—1. THOMÆ WALSINGHAM HISTORIA ANGLICANA; Vol. I., 1272-1381: Vol. II., 1381-1422. 2. WILLELMI RISHANGER CHRONICA ET ANNALES, 1259-1307. 3. JOHANNIS DE TROKELowe ET HENRICI DE BLANEFORDE CHRONICA ET ANNALES, 1259-1296; 1307-1324; 1392-1406. 4. GESTA ABBATUM MONASTERII S. ALBANI, A THOMA WALSINGHAM, REGNANTE RICARDO SECUNDO, EJUSDEM ECCLESIAE PRÆCENTORE, COMPILATA; Vol. I., 793-1290: Vol. II., 1290-1349: Vol. III., 1349-1411. 5. JOHANNIS AMUNDESHAM, MONACHI MONASTERII S. ALBANI, UT VIDETUR, ANNALES; Vols. I. and II. 6. REGISTRA QUORUNDAM ABBATUM MONASTERII S. ALBANI, QUI SÆCULO XV^{mo} FLORUERE; Vol. I., REGISTRUM ABBATIAE JOHANNIS WHETHAMSTEDE, ABBATIS MONASTERII SANCTI ALBANI, ITERUM SUSCEPTÆ; ROBERTO BLAKENEY, CAPELLANO, QUONDAM ADSRIPTUM: Vol. II., REGISTRA JOHANNIS WHETHAMSTEDE, WILLELMI ALBON, ET WILLELMI WALINGFORDE, ABBATUM MONASTERII SANCTI ALBANI, CUM APPENDICE, CONTINENTE QUASDAM EPISTOLAS, A JOHANNE WHETHAMSTEDE CONSCRIPTAS. 7. YPODIGMA NEUSTRIÆ A THOMA WALSINGHAM, QUONDAM MONACHO MONASTERII S. ALBANI, CONSCRIPTUM. Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, Esq., M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863-1876.

In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V., by Thomas Walsingham, Precentor of St. Albans.

In the 3rd volume is a Chronicle of English History, attributed to William Rishanger, who lived in the reign of Edward I.: an account of transactions attending the award of the kingdom of Scotland to John Balliol, 1291-1292, also attributed to William Rishanger, but on no sufficient ground: a short Chronicle of English History, 1292 to 1300, by an unknown hand: a short Chronicle Willelmi Rishanger Gesta Edwardi Primi, Regis Angliæ, with Annales Regum Angliæ, probably by the same hand: and fragments of three Chronicles of English History, 1285 to 1307.

In the 4th volume is a Chronicle of English History, 1259 to 1296: Annals of Edward II., 1307 to 1323, by John de Trokelowe, a monk of St. Albans, and a continuation of Trokelowe's Annals, 1323, 1324, by Henry de Blanford: a full Chronicle of English History, 1392 to 1406; and an account of the Benefactors of St. Albans, written in the early part of the 15th century.

The 5th, 6th, and 7th volumes contain a history of the Abbots of St. Albans, 793 to 1411, mainly compiled by Thomas Walsingham: with a Continuation.

The 8th and 9th volumes, in continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle, probably by John Amundesham, a monk of St. Albans.

The 10th and 11th volumes relate especially to the acts and proceedings of Abbots Whethamstede, Albon, and Wallingford, and may be considered as a memorial of the chief historical and domestic events during those periods.

The 12th volume contains a compendious History of England to the reign of Henry V., and of Normandy in early times, also by Thomas Walsingham, and dedicated to Henry V.

29. CHRONICON ABBATIAE EVESHAMENSIS, AUCTORIBUS DOMINICO PRIORE EVESHAMIAE ET THOMA DE MARLEBERGE ABBATE, A FUNDATIONE AD ANNUM 1213, UNA CUM CONTINUATIONE AD ANNUM 1418. Edited by the Rev. W. D. MACRAY, Bodleian Library, Oxford. 1863.

The Chronicle of Evesham illustrates the history of that important monastery from its foundation by Egwin, about 690, to the year 1418. Its chief feature is an autobiography, which makes us acquainted with the inner daily life of a great abbey, such as but rarely has been recorded. Interspersed are many notices of general, personal, and local history.

30. RICARDI DE CIRENCESTRIA SPECULUM HISTORIALE DE GESTIS REGUM ANGLIÆ. Vol. I., 447-871. Vol. II., 872-1066. Edited by JOHN E. B. MAYOR, M.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1863-1869.

Richard of Cirencester was a monk of Westminster, 1355-1400. His history, in four books, extends from 447 to 1066. He announces his intention of continuing it, but there is no evidence that he completed any more. This chronicle gives many charters in favour of Westminster Abbey, and a very full account of the lives and miracles of the saints, especially of Edward the Confessor, whose reign occupies the fourth book. A treatise on the Coronation, by William of Sudbury, a monk of Westminster, fills book ii. c. 3. It was on this author that C. J. Bertram fathered his forgery, De Situ Britanniæ in 1747.

31. YEAR BOOKS OF THE REIGN OF EDWARD THE FIRST. Years 20-21, 21-22, 30-31, 32-33, and 33-35 Edw. I.; and 11-12 Edw. III. Edited and translated by ALFRED JOHN HORWOOD, Barrister-at-Law. Years 12-13, 13-14, 14, and 14-15 Edward III. Edited and translated by LUKE OWEN PIKE, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863-1889.

The "Year Books" are the earliest of our Law Reports. They contain matter not only of practical utility to lawyers in the present day, but also illustrative of almost every branch of history, while for certain philological purposes they hold a position absolutely unique.

32. NARRATIVES OF THE EXPULSION OF THE ENGLISH FROM NORMANDY 1449-1450. —Robertus Blondelli de Reductione Normanniæ: Le Recouvrement de Normendie, par Berry, Hérault du Roy: Conférences between the Ambassadors of France and England. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A. 1863.

This volume contains the narrative of an eye-witness who details with considerable power and minuteness the circumstances which attended the final expulsion of the English from Normandy in 1450.

33. HISTORIA ET CARTULARIUM MONASTERII S. PETRI GLOUCESTRIÆ. Vols. I., II., and III. Edited by W. H. HART, F.S.A., Membre correspondant de la Société des Antiquaires de Normandie. 1863-1867.

This work consists of two parts, the History and the Cartulary of the Monastery of St. Peter, Gloucester. The history furnishes an account of the monastery from its foundation, in the year 681, to the early part of the reign of Richard II., together with a calendar of donations and benefactions. It treats principally of the affairs of the monastery, but occasionally matters of general history are introduced. Its authorship has generally been assigned to Walter Froucester the twentieth abbot, but without any foundation.

34. ALEXANDRI NECKAM DE NATURIS RERUM LIBRI DUO; with NECKAM'S POEM, DE LAUDIBUS DIVINÆ SAPIENTIÆ. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1863.

Neckam was a man who devoted himself to science, such as it was in the twelfth century. In the "De Naturis Rerum" are to be found what may be called the rudiments of many sciences mixed up with much error and ignorance. Neckam had his own views in morals, and in giving us a glimpse of them, as well as of his other opinions, he throws much light upon the manners, customs, and general tone of thought prevalent in the twelfth century. The poem entitled "De Laudibus Divinæ Sapientiæ" appears to be a metrical paraphrase or abridgment of the "De Naturis Rerum." It is written in the elegiac metre, and it is, as a whole, above the ordinary standard of mediæval Latin.

35. LEECHDOMS, WORTCUNNING, AND STARCRAFT OF EARLY ENGLAND; being a Collection of Documents illustrating the History of Science in this Country before the Norman Conquest. Vols. I., II., and III. Collected and edited by the Rev. T. OSWALD COCKAYNE, M.A. 1864-1866.

This work illustrates not only the history of science, but the history of superstition. In addition to the information bearing directly upon the medical skill and medical faith of the times, there are many passages which incidentally throw light upon the general mode of life and ordinary diet.

36. ANNALES MONASTICI. Vol. I.:—Annales de Margan, 1066-1232; Annales de Theokesberia, 1066-1263; Annales de Burton, 1004-1263. Vol. II.:—Annales Monasterii de Wintonia, 519-1277; Annales Monasterii de Waverleia, 1-1291. Vol. III.:—Annales Prioratus de Dunstaplia, 1-1297. Annales Monasterii de Bermundeseia, 1042-1432. Vol. IV.:—Annales Monasterii de Oseneia, 1016-1347; Chronicon vulgo dictum Chronicon Thomæ Wykes, 1066-1289; Annales Prioratus de Wigornia, 1-1377. Vol. V.:—Index and Glossary. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, and Registry of the University, Cambridge. 1864-1869.

The present collection of Monastic Annals embraces all the more important chronicles compiled in religious houses in England during the thirteenth century. These distinct works are ten in number. The extreme period which they embrace ranges from the year 1 to 1432, although they refer more especially to the reigns of John, Henry III., and Edward I.

37. MAGNA VITA S. HUGONIS EPISCOPI LINCOLNIENSIS. Edited by the Rev. JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. 1864.

This work contains a number of very curious and interesting incidents, and is valuable, not only as a biography of a celebrated ecclesiastic but as the work of a man, who, from personal knowledge, gives notices of passing events, as well as of individuals who were then taking active part in public affairs. The author, in all probability, was Adam Abbot of Evesham, domestic chaplain and private confessor of Bishop Hugh. Bishop Hugh's consecration took place on the 21st September 1186; he died on the 16th of November 1200; and was canonized in 1220.

38. CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF THE REIGN OF RICHARD THE FIRST. Vol. I.:—ITINERARIUM PEREGRINORUM ET GESTA REGIS RICARDI. Vol. II.:—EPISTOLÆ CANTUARIENSES; the Letters of the Prior and Convent of Christ Church, Canterbury; 1187 to 1199. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Vicar of Navestock, Essex, and Lambeth Librarian. 1864-1865.

The authorship of the Chronicle in Vol. I., hitherto ascribed to Geoffrey Vinesauf, is now more correctly ascribed to Richard, Canon of the Holy Trinity of London. The narrative extends from 1187 to 1199; but its chief interest consists in the minute and authentic narrative which it furnishes of the exploits of Richard I., from his departure from England in December 1189 to his death in 1199.

The letters in Vol. II., written between 1187 and 1199, are of value as furnishing authentic materials for the history of the ecclesiastical condition of England during the reign of Richard I. They had their origin in a dispute which arose from the attempts of Baldwin and Hubert, archbishops of Canterbury, to found a college of secular canons, a project which gave great umbrage to the monks of Canterbury.

39. RECUEIL DES CRONIKES ET ANCHIENNES ISTORIES DE LA GRANT BRETAGNEA PRESENT NOMME ENGLETERRE, par JEHAN DE WAURIN. Vol. I. Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1431. Edited by WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1879. Vol. IV. 1431-1443. Edited by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1884.

40. A COLLECTION OF THE CHRONICLES AND ANCIENT HISTORIES OF GREAT BRITAIN, NOW CALLED ENGLAND, by JOHN DE WAURIN. Albina to 688. (Translation of the preceding Vols. I. and II.) Edited and translated by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1887.

This curious chronicle extends from the fabulous period of history down to the return of Edward IV. to England in the year 1471 after the second deposition of Henry VI. The manuscript from which the text of the work is taken was written towards the end of the fifteenth century, having been expressly executed for Louis de Bruges, Seigneur de la Gruthuyse and Earl of Winchester.

41. POLYCHRONICON RANULPHI HIGDEN, with Trevisa's Translation. Vols. I. and II. Edited by CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Senior Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. Vols. III.-IX. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity, Vicar of St. Edward's, Fellow of St. Catharine's College, and late Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge. 1865-1886.

This is one of the many mediæval chronicles which assume the character of a history of the world. It begins with the creation, and is brought down to the author's own time, the reign of Edward III. It enables us to form a very fair estimate of the knowledge of history and geography which well-informed readers of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries possessed, for it was then the standard work on general history.

The two English translations, which are printed with the original Latin, afford interesting illustrations of the gradual change of our language, for one was made in the fourteenth century, the other in the fifteenth.

42. LE LIVRE DE REIS DE BRITTANIE E LE LIVRE DE REIS DE ENGLETERE. Edited by the Rev. JOHN GLOVER, M.A., Vicar of Brading, Isle of Wight, formerly Librarian of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1865.

These two treatises, though they cannot rank as independent narratives, are valuable as careful abstracts of previous historians. Some various readings are given which are interesting to the philologist as instances of semi-Saxonized French. It is supposed that Peter of Ickham was the author.

43. CHRONICA MONASTERII DE MELSA AB ANNO 1150 USQUE AD ANNUM 1406. Vols. I.-III. Edited by EDWARD AUGUSTUS BOND, Assistant-Keeper of Manuscripts, and Egerton Librarian, British Museum. 1866-1868.

The Abbey of Meaux was a Cistercian house, and the work of its abbot is both curious and valuable. It is a faithful and often minute record of the establishment of a religious community, of its progress in forming an ample revenue, of its struggles to maintain its acquisitions, and of its relations to the governing institutions of the country. In addition to the private affairs of the monastery, some light is thrown upon the public events of the time.

44. MATTHÆI PARISIENSIS HISTORIA ANGLORUM, SIVE, UT VULGO DICITUR, HISTORIA MINOR. Vols. I.-III. 1067-1253. Edited by Sir FREDERIC MADDEN, K.H., Keeper of the Manuscript Department of British Museum. 1866-1869.

The exact date at which this work was written is, according to the chronicler, 1250. The history is of considerable value as an illustration of the period during which the author lived, and contains a good summary of the events which followed the Conquest.

45. LIBER MONASTERII DE HYDA: A CHRONICLE AND CHARTULARY OF HYDE ABBEY, WINCHESTER, 455-1023. Edited by EDWARD EDWARDS. 1866.

The "Book of Hyde" is a compilation from much earlier sources which are usually indicated with considerable care and precision. In many cases, however, the Hyde Chronicler appears to correct, to qualify, or to amplify the statements, which, in substance, he adopts. He also mentions, and frequently quotes from writers whose works are either entirely lost or at present known only by fragments.

There is to be found, in the "Book of Hyde," much information relating to the reign of King Alfred which is not known to exist elsewhere. The volume contains some curious specimens of Anglo-Saxon and Mediæval English.

46. CHRONICON SCOTORUM: A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, from the earliest times to 1135; and SUPPLEMENT, containing the Events from 1141 to 1150. Edited, with Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1866.

There is, in this volume, a legendary account of the peopling of Ireland and of the adventures which befell the various heroes who are said to have been connected with Irish history. The details are, however, very meagre both for this period and for the time when history becomes more authentic. The plan adopted in the chronicle gives the appearance of an accuracy to which the earlier portions of the work cannot have any claim. The succession of events is marked year by year, from A.M. 1599 to A.D. 1150.

47. THE CHRONICLE OF PIERRE DE LANGTOFT, IN FRENCH VERSE, FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE DEATH OF EDWARD I. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1866-1868.

It is probable that Pierre de Langtoft was a canon of Bridlington, in Yorkshire, and lived in the reign of Edward I., and during a portion of the reign of Edward II. This chronicle is divided into three parts; in the first, is an abridgment of Geoffrey of Monmouth's "Historia Britonum;" in the second, a history of the Anglo-Saxon and Norman kings, to the death of Henry III.; in the third, a history of the reign of Edward I. The language is singularly corrupt, and a curious specimen of the French of Yorkshire.

48. THE WAR OF THE GAEDHIL WITH THE GAILL, OR THE INVASIONS OF IRELAND BY THE DANES AND OTHER NORSEMEN. Edited, with a Translation, by the Rev. JAMES HENTHORN TODD, D.D., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, and Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Dublin. 1867.

The work in its present form, in the editor's opinion, is a comparatively modern version of an undoubtedly ancient original. That it was compiled from contemporary materials has been proved by curious incidental evidence. The contents of the work are sufficiently described in its title. The story is told after the manner of the Scandinavian Sagas, with poems and fragments of poems introduced into the prose narrative.

49. GESTA REGIS HENRICI SECUNDI BENEDICTI ABBATIS. CHRONICLE OF THE REIGNS OF HENRY II. AND RICHARD I., 1169-1192, known under the name of BENEDICT OF PETERBOROUGH. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, Oxford, and Lambeth Librarian. 1867.

This chronicle of the reigns of Henry II. and Richard I., known commonly under the name of Benedict of Peterborough, is one of the best existing specimens of a class of historical compositions of the first importance to the student.

50. MUNIMENTA ACADEMICA, OR, DOCUMENTS ILLUSTRATIVE OF ACADEMICAL LIFE AND STUDIES AT OXFORD (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. HENRY ANSTEY, M.A., Vicar of St. Wendron, Cornwall, and lately Vice-Principal of St. Mary Hall, Oxford. 1868.

51. CHRONICA MAGISTRI ROGERI DE HOVEDENE. Vols. I., II., III., and IV. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1868-1871.

The earlier portion, extending from 732 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little, and not always judiciously. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49); but it is not a copy, being sometimes an abridgment, at others a paraphrase; occasionally the two works entirely agree; showing that both writers had access to the same materials, but dealt with them differently. From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work; it is extremely valuable, and an authority of the first importance.

52. WILLELMI MALMESBIRIENSIS MONACHI DE GESTIS PONTIFICUM ANGLORUM LIBRI QUINQUE. Edited by N. E. S. A. HAMILTON, of the Department of Manuscripts, British Museum. 1870.

William of Malmesbury's "Gesta Pontificum" is the principal foundation of English Ecclesiastical Biography, down to the year 1122.

53. HISTORIC AND MUNICIPAL DOCUMENTS OF IRELAND, FROM THE ARCHIVES OF THE CITY OF DUBLIN, &c. 1172-1320. Edited by JOHN T. GILBERT, F.S.A., Secretary of the Public Record Office of Ireland. 1870.

A collection of original documents, elucidating mainly the history and condition of the municipal, middle, and trading classes under or in relation with the rule of England in Ireland. Extending over the first hundred and fifty years of the Anglo-Norman settlement, the series includes charters, municipal laws and regulations, rolls of names of citizens and members of merchant-guilds, lists of commodities with their rates, correspondence, illustrations of relations between ecclesiastics and laity; together with many documents exhibiting the state of Ireland during the presence there of the Scots under Robert and Edward Bruce.

54. THE ANNALS OF LOCH CÉ. A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, FROM 1041 to 1590. Vols. I. and II. Edited, with a Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1871.

The original of this chronicle has passed under various names. The title of "Annals of Loch Cé" was given to it by Professor O'Curry, on the ground that it was transcribed for Brian Mac Dermot, an Irish chieftain, who resided on the island in Loch Cé, in the county of Roscommon. It adds much to the materials for the civil and ecclesiastical history of Ireland; and contains many curious references to English and foreign affairs, not noticed in any other chronicle.

55. MONUMENTA JURIDICA. THE BLACK BOOK OF THE ADMIRALTY, WITH APPENDICES, Vols. I.-IV. Edited by SIR TRAVERS TWISS, Q.C., D.C.L. 1871-1876.

This book contains the ancient ordinances and laws relating to the navy, and was probably compiled for the use of the Lord High Admiral of England. Selden calls it the "jewel of the Admiralty Records." Prynne ascribes to the Black Book the same authority in the Admiralty as the Black and Red Books have in the Court of Exchequer, and most English writers on maritime law recognize its importance.

56. MEMORIALS OF THE REIGN OF HENRY VI.:—OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THOMAS BEKYNTON, SECRETARY TO HENRY VI., AND BISHOP OF BATH AND WELLS. Edited by the Rev. GEORGE WILLIAMS, B.D., Vicar of Ringwood, late Fellow of King's College, Cambridge. Vols. I. and II. 1872.

These curious volumes are of a miscellaneous character, and were probably compiled under the immediate direction of Beckynton before he had attained to the Episcopate. They contain many of the Bishop's own letters, and several written by him in the King's name; also letters to himself while Royal Secretary, and others addressed to the King.

57. MATTHÆI PARISIENSIS, MONACHI SANCTI ALBANI, CHRONICA MAJORA. Vol. I. The Creation to A.D. 1066. Vol. II. A.D. 1067 to A.D. 1216. Vol. III. A.D. 1216 to A.D. 1239. Vol. IV. A.D. 1240 to A.D. 1247. Vol. V. A.D. 1248 to A.D. 1259. Vol. VI. Additamenta. Vol. VII. Index. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, D.D., Fellow of Trinity College, Registrar of the University, and Vicar of Great St. Mary's, Cambridge. 1872-1884.

This work contains the "Chronica Majora" of Matthew Paris, one of the most valuable and frequently consulted of the ancient English Chronicles. It is published from its commencement, for the first time.

58. MEMORIALE FRATRIS WALTERI DE COVENTRIA.—THE HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS OF WALTER OF COVENTRY. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1872-1873.

The first portion is not of much importance, being only a compilation from earlier writers. The part relating to the first quarter of the thirteenth century is the most valuable and interesting.

59. THE ANGLO-LATIN SATIRICAL POETS AND EPIGRAMMATISTS OF THE TWELFTH CENTURY. Vols. I. and II. Collected and edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A., Corresponding Member of the National Institute of France (Académie des Inscriptions et Belles-Lettres). 1872.

The Poems contained in these volumes have long been known and appreciated as the best satires of the age in which their authors flourished, and were deservedly popular during the 13th and 14th centuries.

60. MATERIALS FOR A HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF HENRY VII., FROM ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS PRESERVED IN THE PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, M.A., one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools. 1873-1877.

61. HISTORICAL PAPERS AND LETTERS FROM THE NORTHERN REGISTERS. Edited by the Rev. JAMES RAINE, M.A., Canon of York, and Secretary of the Surtees Society. 1873.

The documents in this volume illustrate, for the most part, the general history of the north of England, particularly in its relation to Scotland.

62. REGISTRUM PALATINUM DUNELMENSE. THE REGISTER OF RICHARD DE KELLAWE, LORD PALATINE AND BISHOP OF DURHAM; 1311-1316. Vols. I-IV. Edited by Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HADY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1873-1878.

Bishop Kellawe's Register contains the proceedings of his prelacy, both lay and ecclesiastical and is the earliest Register of the Palatinate of Durham.

63. MEMORIALS OF SAINT DUNSTAN, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1874.
64. CHRONICON ANGLIÆ, AB ANNO DOMINI 1328 USQUE AD ANNUM 1388, AUCTORE MONACHO QUODAM SANCTI ALBANI. Edited by EDWARD MAUNDE THOMPSON, Barrister-at-Law, Assistant-Keeper of the Manuscripts in the British Museum. 1874.
This chronicle gives a circumstantial history of the close of the reign of Edward III.
65. THÓMAS SAGA ERKIBYSKUPS. A LIFE OF ARCHBISHOP THOMAS BECKET, IN ICELANDIC. Vols. I. and II. Edited, with English Translation, Notes, and Glossary by M. EIRÍKR MAGNÚSSON, M.A., Sub-Librarian of the University Library, Cambridge. 1875-1884.

WORKS PUBLISHED IN PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

DOMESDAY BOOK, or the GREAT SURVEY OF ENGLAND OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086; fac-simile of the Part relating to each county, separately (with a few exceptions of double counties). Photozincographed, by Her Majesty's Command, at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton, Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., &c., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, under the Superintendence of W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Keeper of Her Majesty's Records. 35 Parts, imperial quarto and demy quarto (1861-1863), boards. Price 8s. to 1l. 3s. each Part, according to size; or, bound in 2 Vols., 20l. (The edition in two volumes is out of print.)

This important and unique survey of the greater portion of England* is the oldest and most valuable record in the national archives. It was commenced about the year 1084 and finished in 1086. Its compilation was determined upon at Gloucester by William the Conqueror, in council, in order that he might know what was due to him, in the way of tax, from his subjects, and that each at the same time might know what he had to pay. It was compiled as much for their protection as for the benefit of the sovereign. The nobility and people had been grievously distressed at the time by the king bringing over large numbers of French and Bretons, and quartering them on his subjects, "each according to the measure of his land," for the purpose of resisting the invasion of Cnut, King of Denmark, which was apprehended. The Commissioners appointed to make the survey were to inquire the name of each place; who held it in the time of King Edward the Confessor; the present possessor; how many hides were in the manor; how many ploughs were in the demesne; how many homagers; how many villeins; how many cottars; how many serving men; how many free tenants; how many tenants in soccage; how much wood, meadow, and pasture; the number of mills and fish ponds; what had been added or taken away from the place; what was the gross value in the time of Edward the Confessor; the present value; and how much each free man or soc-man had, and whether any advance could be made in the value. Thus could be ascertained who held the estate in the time of King Edward; who then held it; its value in the time of the late King; and its value as it stood at the formation of the survey. So minute was the survey, that the writer of the contemporary portion of the Saxon Chronicle records, with some asperity—"So very narrowly he caused it to be traced out, that there was not a single hide, nor one virgate of land, nor even, it is shame to tell, though it seemed to him no shame to do, an ox, nor a cow, nor a swine was left, that was not set down."

Domesday Survey is in two parts or volumes. The first, in folio, contains the counties of Bedford, Berks, Bucks, Cambridge, Chester, and Lancaster, Cornwall, Derby, Devon, Dorset, Gloucester, Hants, Hereford, Herts, Huntingdon, Kent, Leicester and Rutland, Lincoln, Middlesex, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Salop, Somerset, Stafford, Surrey, Sussex, Warwick, Wilts, Worcester, and York. The second volume, in quarto, contains the counties of Essex, Norfolk and Suffolk.

Domesday Book was printed verbatim et literatim during the last century, in consequence of an address of the House of Lords to King George III. in 1767. It was not, however, commenced until 1773, and was completed early in 1783. In 1860, Her Majesty's Government, with the concurrence of the Master of the Rolls, determined to apply the art of photozincography to the production of a fac-simile of Domesday Book, under the superintendence of Colonel Sir Henry James, R.E., Director-General of the Ordnance Survey, Southampton.

FAC-SIMILES OF NATIONAL MANUSCRIPTS, from WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR to QUEEN ANNE, selected under the direction of the Master of the Rolls, and Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, and edited by

* For some reason left unexplained, many parts were left unsurveyed; Northumberland, Cumberland, Westmoreland, and Durham, are not described in the survey; nor does Lancashire appear under its proper name; but Furness, and the northern part of Lancashire, as well as the south of Westmoreland, with a part of Cumberland, are included within the West Riding of Yorkshire. That part of Lancashire which lies between the Ribble and Mersey, and which at the time of the survey comprehended 688 manors, is joined to Cheshire. Part of Rutland is described in the counties of Northampton and Lincoln.

W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Keeper of Her Majesty's Records. Price each Part, with translations and notes, double foolscap folio, 16s.

Part I. (William the Conqueror to Henry VII.). 1865. (Out of print.)

Part II. (Henry VIII. and Edward VI.) 1866.

Part III. (Mary and Elizabeth). 1867.

Part IV. (James I. to Anne). 1868.

The first Part extends from William the Conqueror to Henry VII., and contains autographs of the kings of England, as well as of many other illustrious personages famous in history, and some interesting charters, letters patent, and state papers. The second Part, for the reigns of Henry VIII. and Edward VI., consists principally of holograph letters, and autographs of kings, princes, statesmen, and other persons of great historical interest, who lived during those reigns. The third Part contains similar documents for the reigns of Mary and Elizabeth, including a signed bill of Lady Jane Grey. The fourth Part concludes the series, and comprises a number of documents taken from the originals belonging to the Constable of the Tower of London; also several records illustrative of the Gunpowder Plot, and a woodcut containing portraits of Mary Queen of Scots and James VI., circulated by their adherents in England, 1580-3.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Lieut.-General J. CAMERON, R.E., C.B., F.R.S., and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Keeper of Her Majesty's Records. Part I. Price 2l. 10s.

The Anglo-Saxon MSS. represented in this volume form the earlier portions of the collection of archives belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and consist of a series of 25 charters, deeds, and wills, commencing with a record of proceedings at the first Synodal Council of Clovestho in 742, and terminating with the first part of a tripartite chirograph, whereby Thurston conveyed to the Church of Canterbury land at Wimbish in Essex, in 1049, the sixth year of the reign of Edward the Confessor.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Major-General A. COOKE, R.E., C.B., and collected and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Keeper of Her Majesty's Records. Part II. Price 3l. 10s.

(Also, separately. Edward the Confessor's Charter. Price 2s.)

The originals of the Fac-similes contained in this volume belong to the Deans and Chapters of Westminster, Exeter, Wells, Winchester, and Worcester; the Marquis of Bath, the Earl of Ilchester, Winchester College, Her Majesty's Public Record Office, Bodleian Library, Somersetshire Archaeological and National History Society's Museum in Taunton Castle, and William Salt Library at Stafford. They consist of charters and other documents granted by, or during the reigns of, Baldred, Æthelred, Offa, and Burgred, Kings of Mercia; Uhtred of the Huiccas, Ceadwalla and Ini of Wessex; Æthelwulf, Eadward the Elder, Æthelstan, Eadmund the First, Eadred, Eadwig, Eadgar, Eadward the Second, Æthelred the Second, Cnut, Eadward the Confessor, and William the Conqueror, embracing altogether a period of nearly four hundred years.

STOTHERD, R.E., C.B., and collected and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Keeper of Her Majesty's Records. Part III. Price 6l. 6s.

This work forms a comprehensive Palæographic Series for Ireland. It furnishes characteristic specimens of the documents which have come down from each of the classes which, in past ages, formed principal elements in the population of Ireland, or exercised an influence in her affairs. With these reproductions are combined fac-similes of writings connected with eminent personages or transactions of importance in the annals of the country to the early part of the eighteenth century.

The specimens have been reproduced as nearly as possible in accordance with the originals, in dimensions, colouring, and general appearance. Characteristic examples of styles of writing and caligraphic ornamentation are, so far as practicable, associated with subjects of historic and linguistic interest. Descriptions of the various manuscripts are given by the Editor in the Introduction. The contents of the specimens are fully elucidated and printed in the original languages, opposite to the Fac-similes—line for line—without contractions—thus facilitating reference and aiding effectively those interested in palæographic studies.

In the work are also printed in full, for the first time, many original and important historical documents.

Part I. commences with the earliest Irish MSS. extant.

Part II.: From the Twelfth Century to A.D. 1299.

Part III.: From A.D. 1300 to end of reign of Henry VIII.

Part IV. 1.: From reign of Edward VI. to that of James I.

In Part IV. 2.—the work is carried down to the early part of the eighteenth century, with Index to the entire publication.
